SECOND AND MOST SERIOUS ATTEMPT TO TAKE POSITION

Turks Offer Stubborn Resistance to Allies' Attacks in the Dardanelles.

MISTAKE AS TO DUNKIRK

Town Bombarded from the Land by Heavy Guns. Fleet Not Operating.

German Cavalry Reported Invading Russia.

London, April 30.—After serious fighting, in which the Turks offered a stubborn resistance, British troops, according to an official statement issued tonight, have established themselves on the Gallipoli peninsula and advanced a considerable distance toward the Narrows of the Dardanelles, while the French have cleared Cape Kum Kaleh, on the Asiatic side of the straits, of Turks.

Thus, it may be said that the second and most serious attempt to force the Dardanelles has been fairly launched.

Turks Forced Back.

The Turks under German officers placed every obstacle in the way of the invaders but against the fire of the Allied fleet and the gallantry of the army they were forced to fall back. The British forces lost heavily in the operation.

Six points were selected for the landings, which began at daylight of April 25. At five points they were successful immediately but at the sixth, near Zeddul Bahr, the troops were unable to advance until the evening. The Australians and New Zealaners landed on the west coast of the Gallipoli peninsula, directly across the countr yfrom the strongly fortified Narrows. The other British troops disembarged at the extreme end of the peninsula and by the 26th when it was decided to give the men a rest and time to enable the the positions to be consolidated, they had reached Krithia, on the road which runs along the peninsula and over which they will join their comrades from the dominions and attack the forts guarding the Narrows in the rear.

The French took possession of Cape Kum Kaleh after they had previously attacked toward Yeni Shehr, to the south on the Asia Minor coast.

Forts Bombarded.

While this attack was proceeding the fleet, besides covering the landing of the troops, kept up a bombardment of the forts in the Dardanelles and prevented reinforcements from reaching Turkey from the sea of Marmora. One Turkish troop ship was sunk by the battleship Queen Elizabeth which is believed to have fired her guns across the peninsula, directed by airmen. The troopship was sunk off Maidos, a town well inside the Narrows, which later the batiteship Triumph bombarded and set on fire.

The official account of the landing of the Allies troops does not bear out the over-optimistic reports from Grecian towns which preceded it, and which mentioned thousands of prisoners as having been captured, the total of men taken by the Allies are given as 500. These were cut off by the fire of the ships.

Neither does the report mention operations off Smyrna or in the Gulf of Saros against the Bulair line of forts, but it is certain that these points are being watched to prevent reinforcements reaching the Turks.

Besides the news from the Dardanelles, the British public was supplied with several sensations today. The misreading of today's French official communication led to the belief that the German fleet was out and had bombarded Dunkirk, France, but it transpired that by some means, not yet explained, the Germans had brought their big land guns within range of Dunkirk and thrown shells into it and killed 20 persons and wounded 45.

Another report had it that the Germans had been seen off the coast of Belgium but as British war craft were bombarding Zeebrugge, during the greater part of last night and again today this seems doubtful.

Cavalry Invades Russia.

Another sensation came from the East, where it is announced that German cavalry, which apaprently got around the extreme right of the Russians has invaded the Russian Baltic provinces. There has been no indication in what force the Germans are operating, but it is presumed here that the cavalry is simply looking over the ground to find out what opposition a force landed at Polangen in the province of Courtland would meet with. In military circles here it is asserted that this cavalry, however, can interfere with the Russian communications and give the famous Russian Cossacks something to do.

At the other end of the Russian line the Russians are reported to be continuing slow progress in the Uzsok Pass and to repulsing Austrian attacks on their flank in the direction of Stry.

ALLIES SUCCEED IN THE DARDANELLES

According to Official Brief Account of Operation

GIVEN OUT LAST NIGHT

Landing Successfully Carried Out But With Heavy Losses—Situations Well Established —Sinks Transport.

London, April 30.—The British war office tonight made public this official communication concerning operations against the Dardanelles:

"The disembarkation of the army in the Dardanelles began before sunrise April 25. Six beaches were used and the operation was covered by the whole fleet.

"The landing was successful immediately on five beaches, although it was opposed with vigor by a strongly entrenched enemy in successive lines, protected by barbed wire entanglements in some places 50 yards wide and supported by artillery.

"On the sixth beach, near Seddul Bahr, the troops could not advance until evening, when a fine attack by the British infantry from the direction of Cape Tekeh relieved the pressure on their front. The arrangements for landing had been concerted in the utmost detail between the fleet and the army.

Troops Are Landed.

"The result of the first day's operations was the establishment of strong forces of British, Australian and New Zealand forces at three points, namely, the Australian and New Zealand troops on the lower slopes of Sari Bair north of Gaba Tepe; of British troops at Cape Tekeh, at Cape Helles and near Morto Bay, and of a French force on the Asiastic shore at Kum Kaleh, after a gallant attack toward Yeni Shehr.

"During the afternoon of the 25th strong enemy counter attacks began and hard fighting took place. Meanwhile the disembarkation of the army proceeded.

"At daybreak the 26th the enemy was still holding the village and position of Seddul Bahr which was a labyrinth of caves, dins, trenches, pits and entanglements. Aided by the fleet this position was stormed by the British in frontal attack through undamaged wire entanglements.

Sedul Bahr Taken.

"Seddul Bahr was taken about 2 p. m The situation at this end of the peninsula thus was definitely secured and the disembarkation of French and British forces proceeded.

"In the morning of the 27th after repulsing a Turkish attack upon their left toward Cape Helles the Allies advanced and at 5 p. m. were established in an entrenched line running from a point about two miles north of Cape Tekeh to a small plateau above De-Totts battery. From this line an advance since has been made to the neighborhood of Krithia.

"Meanwhile the Australian and New Zealand troops at Sari Bair, who pushed on with the utmost boldness, after the landing on the 25th had been engaged almost constantly with the enemy who made strong repeated counter attacks which invariably were repulsed. The Australian and New Zeal-

SECRETARY DANIELS TO VISIT NORFOLK TODAY

Will Review May Fete and Target Practice on Sound.

Will Also Decide What Shall Be Done With German Commerce Raiders Now at Norfolk and Newport News—May Go to New York.

Washington, April 30.—Secretary Daniels left on the Mayflower tonight for Norfolk to confer with Read Admiral Beatty, commandant of the Norfalk navy yard and to witness target practice of the Atlantic fleet in Tangier Sound. In his party were Mrs. Daniels, her mother, Mrs. Adelaide Bagley, Misses Cora and Ethel Bagley; Rear Admirals Blue, Taylor and McGowan; Captain Ridley McLean and Commander Wurtsbaugh.

Mr. Daniels will discuss with Rear Admiral Beatty the advisability of taking either or both of the German raiders, Prinz Eitel Friedrich and Kron Prinz Wilhelm to some other anchorage than the Norfolk navy yard for internment.

The Secretary and his party will observe target practice early Saturday afternoon when the Mayflower will return to Norfolk, where the Secretary will review a May fete in which apprentices from the Norfolk naval station will participate.

MAY SEND RAIDERS ELSEWHERE.

Daniels to Consult With Commander of Norfolk Navy Yard Today.

Washington, April 30.—Whether the German commerce raiders Kron Prinz Wilhelm and Prinz Eitel Friedrich will be interned at New York or some other port having more facilities for the purpose than the Norfolk navy yard, will be determined at a conference at Hampton Roads tomororw between Secretary Daniels and Rear Admiral Beatty, commandant of the navy yard.

FOREIGN COMMERCE FOR UNITED STATES

Great Expansion of Trade With World in Future.

GREAT OPPORTUNITIES

Many Speakers Emphasize Advantages to Be Reaped by America in Period Following Close of the War—Wilson Doctrine.

Philadelphia, April 30.—How best to take advantage of opportunities for foreign trade expansion and how to find work for the unemployed until the full measure of prosperity is upon the United States were questions discussed today at the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science. Secretary Redfield saw a vast increase coming in the nation's foreign commerce. So vast would the increase be, he said, that he thought no one would be surprised if the United States should take second, if not first place in the world's commerce.

Theodore H. Price, economist, said the prospect for trade expansion was such that Americans are in danger of developing a "big head."

Speakers agreed that in solving the problem of the unemployed the national and state governments should do more in finding work for idle men.

Study Immigration Question.

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, and Frank J. Warne, of Washington, urged that the government should at once study closely the question of immigration and, if necessary restrict the inflow of workmen from Europe after the war so as not to upset economic conditions by a surplus of labor.

Theodore Marburg, of Baltimore, former minister of Belgium, advocated a league of the nations with a view to preventing or reducing the chances of war. His idea was that when two nations found themselves at odds they could submit their differences for settlement to the league.

I. Wolf, Jr., president of the American Bank in Berlin, said there was a great opportunity coming to the United States for trade expansion in Germany and Austria.

Should Increase Zone.

Paul Fuller, a lawyer of New York, addressing tonight the American Academy of Political and Social Science, asserted that the three-mile zone of sovereignty along American shores should be abandoned, in view of the development of modern guns, and that "there should be established a much extended and thoroughly safe zone around the two Americas beyond which no belligerent should venture without incurring the peril of internment."

Mr. Fuller said, in part:

"It would not be amiss to meet the new creation of war zones with the creation of more beneficent peace zones. The great concern, even among many of the present belligerents, has been, as it always should be, to circumscribe the area of any unavoidable conflict. In this design, which has so lamentably failed on the present occasion, belligerents would be greatly aided to their own relief, as well as to the benefit of the world, by the joint cooperation of all neutrals. This should be especially easy in establishing rules for the protection of our Western hemisphere, hitherto considered so safely distant from the dangers of European wars.

The Hopes of Jefferson.

"It was one of the hopes of Jefferson that some day there might be established a meridian of partition through the ocean which separates the two hemispheres, on the hither side of which no European gun shall ever be heard. While so large a hope may still be of distant realization, the suggestion is pertinent and timely today. The three mile limit of olden times should be abandoned, and, with the advent of guns carrying their dreadful missiles 20 miles, and with a large increase of coasting trade, there should be established a much-extended and thoroughly safe zone around the two Americas, beyond which no belligerent should venture without incurring the peril of internment.

"We cannot do better than to join hands with our sister republics to the south in establishing new rules and broader privileges for the neutrality of this hemisphere. * * * *

"It will be a step, let us hope, in our further union, not only to protect but to enhance our mutual economic interests, and help to bring about that economic and financial emancipation of all Latin-American counties which President Wilson has advocated in the same manner that, under the guidance of President Monroe, a like emancipation was secured against political and governmental influences in the Western continent—thus giving assurance to the world that America—the Americas—stand together, and that far from becoming imperialistic and oppressive, the Monroe Doctrine has blossomed into a newer and larger fraternity, which will be known as the 'Wilson Doctrine.'"

PRESIDENT WILL SPEND SUMMER IN WASHINGTON.

Will Not Have Office at Summer White House at Cornish, N. H.

Washington, April 30.—President Wilson plans not to establish an office at the summer White House, at Cornish, N. H., but to spend most of his time in Washington. He will make several trps to Cornish to visit his family and short cruises on the yacht Mayflower.

It was said at the White House today that these plans were made not because the President looks on the European or the Mexican situations as especially critical, but because he thinks it his duty to remain in Washington as much as possible to keep in close touch with public questions.

The President has declined an invitation to speak in New York May 17 and 18, during his review of the Atlantic fleet.

COMMISSION RUBS "SALVE" UPON ALL PARTIES OFFENDED

Says Carter Acted Harshly, Arbitrarily, Unwisely, But Not Corruptly.

NO IMMORAL CONDUCT

Abernethy Entitled to Have Contempt Records Expunged, if Possible.

Finds Judge Had Recurrent Nervous Trouble.

Raleigh, N. C., April 30.—The report of the Legislative committee in the Judge Frank Carter-Solicitor Abernethy case filed this afternoon absolves Judge Carter from all charges reflecting on his moral character; finds that at various times, including the Newbern contempt incident, the judge "acted harshly and arbitrarily, unwisely exercised his judicial discretion, lost his temper and used intemperate language, but at no time acted corruptly," and Solicitor Abernethy is held to be entitled to have the contempt records entered against him on the minutes of the Craven county court expunged, or at least corrected in so far as the records reflect on his official conduct or private character, if this can be done by any exercise of constitutional authority," as the committee expresses it.

Thirty-Seven Typewritten Pages.

The report of the committee was filed with Governor Craig about 5 o'clock by Representatives Stacy and Vann, the other members of the committee having left for their homes yesterday and today with the understanding that various clerical corrections should be made by Messrs. Vann and Stacy before filing the report with the Governor. The document consists of 37 typewritten pages, a large part of it, however, being a recitation of the legislative proceeding that terminated in the appointment of the committee to investigate, and complete reproduction of the contempt record entered against Solicitor Abernethy on the minutes of the Craven county court by Judge Carter that brought about the investigation and on which it hinged.

Report a "Composite Compromise."

Members of the committee have made it plain that the report as filed really represents the complete views of no member of committee, but represents a "composite compromise harmonization" of views from seven angles representing the seven members of the committee, individual members having manifested at the outset of the conferences widely divergent views as to nearly every phase of the case. However, the report is signed by all the members of the committee.

The committee does not indicate what course Solicitor Abernethy should take to clear the contempt records at Newbern of any reflection on his official conduct and private character, which the committee holds that he is entitled to have. It is understood that the idea entertained is that a bill in equity can be brought by which the court can make an order for the correction of the entries to this end.

The committee recites that it is in evidence "and the committee so finds," that Judge Carter had a serious nervous collapse and breakdown just before he went on the bench and that since his incumbency of the judgship he has had an occasional return of nervous disorder which, in the opinion of the committee seriously affects his temperament, provokes irritation and a derangement of his accustomed mental equipoise; that since he assumed office he has held court in 56 counties of the State and while holding courts in at least six of these counties, he has exhibited some evidence of a return of his nervous troubles.

As to Immoral Conduct.

Concerning the charges against Judge Carter of immoral conduct with women the report says:

"The committee heard and considered all evidence which it was able to discover or elicit, and finds that the rumors concerning these allegations are without foundation and that the charges are in no wise sustained, and the committee promptly notified Judge Carter of its conclusion at the close of the evidence relating to this charge. The committee finds that there were widespread rumors of the nature outlined in the resolutions introduced and that their existence impaired the usefulness of Judge Carter and called for an investigation; the committee trusts, however, that these rumors are now set at rest."

Then the report proceeds with the committee statement of the evidence of nervous collapse of Judge Carter just before he went on the bench and evidences of returns of this trouble that affected his judicial temperament

ATTEMPT TO PROVE CHARGES ARE TRUE

Of Bi-Partisan Agreement Between Barnes and Murphy.

WITNESSES ARE HEARD

Several Former State Senators Take the Stand and Tell of Happenings During Legislature of 1910—Whitman Wrote Letter.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 30.—Counsel for Theodore Roosevelt today placed before the jury, trying William Barnes' suit alleging libel, testimony designed to indicate the existence of a bi-partisan combination between Barnes, as leader of the Republican organizaton and Charles F. Murphy, as leader of the Democratic organzation.

To this end, former State Senators Harvey D. Hinman, Fred M. Davenport and Joshua T. Lewcombe and H. C. McMillan, a former correspondent in Albany for a New York newspaper, were placed on the witness stand.

Hinman, Davenport and McMillan testified to things the ysaid happened in the legislature in 1910 when direct primaries legislation was under consideration. Hinman testified to the adjourning of the special session.

McMillan swore that he heard Barnes talking to various Republican senators including Senator Gratton. He said he saw Senator Gratton talk to Senators Grady and Frawley whom he described as "Tammany Democrats" and that soon after the pair went into a room in which Mr. Barnes was. That evening he also said, Senator Gratton made a motion, which was passed, to concur in a joint resolution with the assembly to adjourn the special session.

Saw Barnes in Senate.

Davenport, who was Progressive candidate for governor last fall, said he had seen Barnes during a recess of the senate in the office of the senate clerk, talking to Republican senators while in an adjoining room. Senator Grady was talking to Democratic senators. Later the senators all returned to the chamber, he said, and 14 Republicans and 14 Democrats voted for a direct primary bill favored by the organization.

Davenport said that he told Senator Grattan, who, he said, had been deriding Governor Hughes, and Colonel Roosevelt for insisting upon a direct primary law, that he spoke, "like the mouthpiess of a political Nero," who was fiddling outside the door of the senate chamber while Rome burned. Davenport said Barnes was outside.

Charles Duell, Jr., to whom Governor Whitman sent the letter read in court yesterday, applauded after Davenport had mentioned a "political Negro" and Judge Andrews requested him to leave the room. He hesitated and an attendant saw him out of the room.

Admitted Conspiracy.

Former Senator Newcombe declared that he had acucsed Senator Grattan, Republican, and Senator Grady, Democrat, of entering into a conspiracy to defeat a direct primary bill, favored by the governor and that Senator Grattan said "we admit it." Then L. W. France, chairman of the committee of the Young Republican Club, of Brooklyn, quoted Mr. Barnes as having said he was "opposed to direct primaries, because they gave candidates too much publicity, and that he could vote the riffraff of the Democrats in Albany in the Republican primaries and so disgust the people that they would demand a repeal of the law."

The Roosevelt counsel also got into record testimony concerning the alleged printing situation in Albany. The one witness who testified, Michael Dolan, general manager of the Argus Company, of Albany, swore that he never had any business relations with Barnes and in this connection Justice Andrews agreed to the statement of counsel that Barnes was in no way responsible as a stockholder in the Albany Journal Company.

WHITMAN WROTE THE LETTER.

Governor of New York Says He Is Still of the Same Opinion.

Albany, N. Y., April 30.—Governor Whitman said today the letter written by him and introduced at the Roosevelt-Barnes trial was given out by him last July.

"That letter expressed my sentiments then," he said, "and I would write the same now."

TELLS OF SINKING OF SHIP.

Engineer of Sunken Ship Declares Germans Made No Effort to Save Life

London, April 30.—B. T. Peak, second engineer of the British steamer Falaba, who was rescued by a trawler when his ship was sunk off the Irish coast March 28, by a German submarine, with a heavy loss of life, has made a statement to the admiralty, definitely charging that the submarine crew laughed at the struggling survivors of the Falaba and were indifferent to their appeals for help. After telling how he was washed off a lifeboat by the explosion of a torpedo, but managed to keep himself up with an oar, Peak says:

"I was now quite close to the submarine. In fact, I was hoping they would pick me up, but, instead, they were laughing and seemed to treat it as ah uge joke. There were about a dozen standing on her deck. The crew of the submarine had every opportunity for saving lives had they been so minded, but it was quite evident that the Germans were prepared to see the people drown."

Washington, April 30.—Woman labor problems as they arise in the immigration service are to be worked out by a woman. President Wilson today waived the civil service requirements and appointed Mrs. Lucy Jones Harris, of Morganfield, Ky., to take up the work in the labor distribution branch of the service in New York.

SENATOR FLETCHER AGAIN IS HONORED

Elected to Presidency of Southern Commercial Congress.

FOR THE FOURTH TIME

Other Officers Are Also Re-Elected. Edwin F. Sweet Voices Different Views from Those Expressed by Geo. W. Perkins.

Muskogee, Ala., April 30.—Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, was re-elected president of the Southern Commercial Congress here tonight by the board of directors, chosen today. The other officers also were re-elected.

Senator Fletcher has served three previous terms, Dr. Clarence J. Owens, Washington, D. C., was re-elected managing director; T. S. Southgate, Norfolk, Va., first vice president; Albert P. Bush, Jr., Mobile, Ala., second vice president, and William H. Saunders, Washington, D. C., treasurer. Mrs. Louis G. Lindsey, Nashville, Tenn., was re-elected president-general of the woman's auxiliary tot the Congress.

Views regarding the effect of governmental influence upon business widely at variance with those expressed yesterday by George W. Perkins, of New York, were voiced by Edwin F. Sweet, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, at the final session of the Congress today.

"Mr. Perkins told you that we have enough laws, telling us what we can't do in business and what we need is laws telling us what we can do," he said. "The same arraignment might be brought out against the Ten Commandments.

"Mr. Perkins said he would like to have all the tariff matters adjusted by a commission which should be a sort of tariff court. Again while condemning government officials, he says the courts can do and are doing precisely the same thing. He belongs to a political school which believes that court decisions are right only when they are his way."

Chinaman a Speaker.

Kai Fu Shah, envoy extraordinary to the United States from China, another speaker tonight declared the United States the proper place in which to float Chinese loans.

"There has been opposition to the introduction of foreign capital into China for the reason that foreign control may follow foreign loans," he said. "The United Statees is a country absolutely free from ulterior motives in this regard. The introduction of American capital therefore, is welcomed by the government, and people of China. In China trade is certain to follow the loan."

"China," he said, "offers a large market for American rice, raw cotton and cotton goods and the American cigarette while the United States can obtain raw silk and tea in China."

William P. Malburn, assistant Secretary of the Treasury, advocated the development of trade with the countries of Latin-America.

Washington, April 30.—The Federal Reserve Board today approved re-discount rates of 4 per cent. on 30-day maturities, 4 1-2 per cent. on 30-60 day maturities and 5 per cent. on longer maturities, for the Atlanta Federal Reserve bank.

PATRIOTISM NO MATCH FOR JOHN BARLEY-CORN

European War Has Taught Much in That Respect.

Bryan in Address at New York Says that he had accused Senator Grattan, More Dangerous Than Airship Bombs and Torpedoes.

New York, April 30.—Secretary Bryan, urging total abstinence, declared in an address under the auspices of the National Abstainers' Union here tonight that the European war had shown that patroitism was no match for the appetite which alcohol cultivates in its victims.

"There has been a growing disposition in this country and throughout the world to emphasize the evils of strong drink," he said, "but even the most enthusiastic advocates of temperance have been surprised at the ghastly light which the war in Europe has thrown upon the subject. It has been found that patriotism, that compelling force which throughout the ages has led men to offer their lives for their country, is no match for the appetite which alcohol cultivates in its victims. Loyalty to Bacchus, Gambrinas and Barleycorn is greater than loyalty to king or kaiser or character. The aeroplane that drops its bomb from above and the submarine which shoots its torpedo from below are less to be feared than the schooner that crosses the bar."

Mr. Bryan declared drink led to idleness and that American business men were drawing the line more strictly against the use of alcohol by employes. Total abatinence, he remarked, was a virtue "even behind the bar."

Mr. rByan said the amount spent annually for drink in the United States would build 100 macadam highways across the continent, and added:

"The amount now expended in paving the road to perdition would, if spent for good roads, soon lift the mud embargo from the entire country."

ARBITRATION NOW OVER: ENGINEMEN ARE NOT PLEASED

Dispute Between Engineers and Firemen and Western Railroads Settled.

BINDING FOR ONE YEAR

Employes Criticise Newlands Law as Inadequate—Formal Statement.

Frankly Declare Action Only a Postponement.

Chicago, April 30.—An arbitration award advancing to some extent the pay of 64,000 locomotive engineers, firemen and hostlers on 98 Western railroads was signed here today.

A dissenting opinion was filed on behalf of the Brotherhood of Enginemen in which the arbitration was branded as a failure and the Newlands law, under which it was arranged, an inadequate device for settlement of industrial disputes.

Merely a Postponing.

The award, effective May 16th, and binding for one year only, was frankly declared in the dissenting opinion as merely postponing for a twelve month the actual settlement of differences. The railroad members of the board issued a formal statement criticising features of the regulations governing the arbitration, and remarking that certain concessions regarded as unjust, were made for the sake of preserving peace with the employes.

Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, chairman of the board, declared that while in his opinion the men in certain branches of the service were entitled to greater advances than were made, he had to make concessions that an award might be made, and he found much of a hopeful nature in the award. Charles Nagel, former secretary of commerce and labor, who, with Judge Pritchard, represented the board of mediation and conciliation, was the only member who issued no statement.

He is known to have been deeply offended by the recent attack made on him by officers of the brotherhoods, who pointed out that he was a trustee of the estate of the late Adolphus Busch and that railroad securities form a part of the assets of the estates.

The brotherhoods were represented on the arbitration board by B. A. Burgess, Louisville, Ky., of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Timothy Shea, of Peoria, Ills., of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. The railrad members were W. L. Park, Chicago, vice-president of the Illinois Central and H. E. Yram, Chicago, vice-president of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. As explained by Mr. Burgess, the essential concessions to the men were:

Those Things Granted.

1. Standardization of rates of pay on the weight of locomotive on wrive wheels.

2. Overtime pay to passenger firemen and engineers ranging from 44 to 75 cents an hour, respectively.

3. Enginemen of tseam power may transfer to electric power when installed without loss of seniority rights after May 1, 1915. The board named $3.50 a day as the minimum for passenger mortormen and $2.50 for their helpers; $4.75 for freight motormen and $2.75 for helpers.

4. Enginemen of milk trains, circus trains and other irregular service, get an increase amounting to from 10 to 15 per cent.

5. The men will be paid for delay while in their cabs at initial and final terminals and for time in excess of 30 minutes spent in preparing their engines for service.

6. Switch enginemen will receive an advance in daily pay of 25 cents on small engines and 15 on large ones.

7. Men held away from home terminals shall, after 22 hours idleness receive a minimum day's pay of 10 hours, based on last service out of each succeeding 24 hours until he gets a run.

8. Through freight wage rates were advanced 5 to 20 cents and 25 cents on some of theextremely heavy engines.

9. Way freight enginemen will receive 30 cents a day more than through freight men.

10. Surprise tests will be conducted in such a way as not to endanger life, limbs or nerves.

11. Firemen will be assisted where assistance is available in keeping coal forward.

12. Wher firemen on big engines ask an assistant the matter, if necessary, may be adjusted through arbitration.

13. Firemen will not be required to clean engines.

14. The weight on the drive wheels of each engine shall be posted where th engineman can have convenient access to the information.

Among the requests not granted were the automatic release, time and a half for overtime in freight and switching service and the five hour day in passenger serivce. The award on the surprise test was as desired by the railroads but Mr. Burgess listed it

Chicago, April 30.—Urban Faber held Detroit to three scattered hits today while his teammates bunched their hits off Dubuc and Chicago won a pitchers' battle 4 to 1. Detroit's lone run was a gift. Cobb drew a base on balls, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on a sacrifice fly. The visitors threatened to score in the sixth inning but Cobb, who had reached third base, was trapped by a sensational play started by Eddie Collins and was nipped a few feet off third base after Crawford singled. Philadelphia, April 30.—Jack Coombs, former star of the Athletics, pitched his first full game as a National leaguer for Brooklyn today and Philadelphia was defeated, 2 to 1. Coombs was wild, but brilliant fielding by Schultz saved him from being scored on in two innings. In the ninth, with two men out and runners on second and first, Coombs ended the game by catching Weiser off second.

SHIPBUILDERS MAKE TWO RUNS IN LAST INNING AND THUS WIN

Rocky Mount in the Lead Until the Ninth; Then Defeated.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., April 30.—Two pinch hitters called into the game to supplant the battery in the ninth inning turned the one-run lead of the locals into a tie game and a moment later into victory for the Newport News Shipbuilders by a score of 6 to 5, after the Tar Heels had taken the lead in the fifth frame. The local pitcher, Berg, was hit for 12 safe pounds while phenomenal fielding of the Tar Heels' infield cut off more hits than on any previous occasion. Walker and Macolmson were the guilty parties who carried off the victory after evident defeat was pending.

FAIRMONT ADDS ANOTHER TO THE "WON" COLUMN.

Fairmont, N. C., April 30.—Fairmont won from Orrum, at Orrum, yesterday, 14 to 6, the game being slow and uninteresting. The game was featured by the hard hitting of the whole Fairmont team, and the fielding of Soggie Floyd, Fairmont's first baseman. Johnson pitched a good game, striking out 15 men.

Batteries: Orrum, Fleming, Nye and Lawson; Fairmont, Johnson and McDaniel; umpires, O'Berry and Covington.

Washington, April 30.—Ramiro Sieglie, Cuban infielder, secured by the Washington Americans this spring, was released today to the Newport News club, of the Virginia League, under an optional agreement. It was said he probably would be recalled at the end of the Virginia League season.

Washington, April 30.—John Armstrong Chaloner, of Albemarle county, Virginia, today filed in the Supreme court an apepal from the decision of the New York Federal court which refused to declare void the proceedings in the New York state courts by which Chaloner was adjudged in competent and his property was placed in the hands of a committee. Chaloner seeks to recover damages from Thos. T. Sherman, in charge of his affairs in New York.

CITY LEAGUE OPENS ITS SEASON AT SUNSET PARK

Large Crowds Expected to Witness Opening Games

Much Enthusiasm Displayed by Fans of City—Y. M. C. A. Boosters to Have Parade Before Games—Players in Good Shape.

Today ushers in the official baseball season for Wilmington and, the weather man permitting, large crowds are expected to view the two games to be pulled off at Sunset Park between the teams of the City League this afternoon. Mayor Moore will start the fireworks when he tosses the ball from the grandstand to "His Umps" promptly at 3 o'clock. All the teams are in fine shape and two excellent exhibitions of the national pasttime are promised.

To encourage the public to attend the games every Saturday afternoon at Sunset Park and to urge their team on to victory, the Boosters of the Y. M. C. A. are going to pull off a parade through the streets of the city in the early afternoon. Martial strains rendered by a "Big Brass Band" will urge the warriors to do their best and incidentally is expected to inspire the people of the city with the desire to see the games.

The parade will start from the Y. M. C. A. promptly at 1:30 and will terminate at the ball park. Some 30 or 40 machines will take part in the grand march. The music will lead the parade and will later do service at the park. It is the plan of the Boosters to make this the most successful season that the City League has had.

The first game this afternoon will be called promptly at 3 o'clock and will be between the Boys' Brigade and the Giants. The second game is scheduled for 5 o'clock when the Y. M. C. A. and the W. L. I. boys will battle for victory. All four of the teams are in first class shape and go to the grounds this afternoon determined to begin the season winning and to close it with the pennant on their flagstaff. Only one team can win in the final outcome, so be on hand and lend your favorite team your support to a good get-off and aid them to keep up the fight by attending every Saturday afternoon.

The Tidewater Power Company will operate a 20-minute car service to Sunset Park this afternoon for the games.

THEATRICAL

A Play of Love's Devotion.

Heading the list at the home of the "Incomparable Movies" on this big week-end occasion is one of the very greatest two-reel releases which the Big-U company has made this year, "The Troubadour," a great Mexican drama featuring Murdock MacQuarrie and Agnes Vernon. It's a strong play in which Murdock MacQuarrie in the picturesque Mexican costume and Agnes Vernon being serenaded behind convent walls, tell a beautiful love story which you must not miss.

Many of his friends did not recognize Murdock MacQuarrie when he appeared in the quaint Mexican garb, with his perfect make-up, as he has been accustomed to playing roles of old men. Just for a change, he thought it would be interesting to assume a role different from anything he had ever done, and "The Troubadour" is the result.

Then there's an appealing Rex drama, "A Man and His Money," featuring Pauline Bush and Lon Chaney in the leading roles.

A rousing Nestor scream, "All in the Same Boat" brings up the rear, and features peerless funmakers, Jack Dillon and Billie Rhodes.

At the Grand Today.

Today the Grand is offering another of those great Saturday programmes. The truly great offering on this programme is a three-reel feature, "Marah, the Pythoness," from the Lubin studio, and is fairly running over with thrilling scenes and dramatic situations one of which is the scene where the two rivals for the hand of Marah, the Pythoness(so-called because of the great python that was always her constant companion), meet in the python's den and toss coins for possession of the only loaded revolver in the room. Jules loses and Sewall takes deliberate aim and fires.

Then to drive away the glooms is a Keystone comedy, "The Lucky Leap," the opening scenes of which are laid in a grocery store and business "picks up" when the vinegar barrel "busts" and never does stop and there are just laughs, laughs and some more laughs. Not a dull minute in this great Saturday programme.

The Victoria Today.

There is no doubt in the world that the big feature production, "Tillie's Punctured Romance," made by the Keystone Company and featuring Marie Dressler, Charles Chaplin, Mable Normand and other well known Keystone players is the longest and funniest comedy ever made, and with this production showing today at the Victoria lovers of good comedy and admirers of the three international stars appearing in the picture are missing a rare treat if they fail to see this, the king of all comedies.

It takes six reels to depict the hundreds of amusing things that befall the three leading characters and each reel is funnier than the preceding until at the finish there is a perfect gale of laughter.

Marie Dressler, Charlie Chaplin and Mable Normand are without peers for laughter producing purposes and their combined efforts in this picture will be a long remembered treat.

and troops fought with a fine spirit of determination.

"O nthe morning of the 27th a fresh Turkish division was launched against Sahr Bahr, preceded by a heavy artillery fire. A hot engagement followed. The enemy came on boldly time after time, but the Australian and New Zealand troops defeated their every attempt and by 3 p. m. had resumed the offensive.

Strong Counter Attacks.

"The French troops at Kum Kaleh also were four times strongly counter-attacked on the 26th but retained all their positions. Five hundred Turks who in the course of one of these counter-attacks were cut off by the fire of the fleet were made prisoners.

"The operating of the landing army in the face of modern weapons under sea as well as on land, and in spite of wire entanglements, and of land mines and deep pits with spikes at their bottoms, this has been accomplished.

"The casualties in the army necessarily have been heavy. The casualties in the fleet were not numerous. They appear to have been confined to torpedo boat destroyers and to boats' crews engaged in landing operations in which merchant captains and officers and crews of transports also have taken part.

"During the operations Turkish warships from Nakara several times have attempted to intervene without success.

"At noon on the 27th, however, a transport of about 8,000 tons was reported off Maidos and before she could escape the Queen Elizabeth opened fire. The third shot hit and destroyed her. She sank rapidly, but whether she contained troops or not could not be seen.

"On the 28th and 29th the Allies' forces rested and improved and consolidated their positions and continued the disembarkation of stores and artillery. All enemy counter-attacks which were incessant on the 28th but weaker on the 29th were repulsed.

"The fleet as well as the supporting army, has begun to engage the batteries.

"The Triumph bombarded Maidos, which was in flames last night, the 29th."

THE TURKISH STATEMENT.

Declares That British Fleet Attacking Narrows Damaged—Destroyer Sunk.

Constantinople, via London, April 30.—The following Turkish official statement regarding operations in the Dardanelles was given out here tonight:

"On April 28th the fire of our batteries damaged the French armored cruiser Jeanne D'Arc, which left for Tenedos in flames. An English destroyer was sunk by our shell fire on April 28th at the entrance to the Narrows.

"Sixteen armored cruisers attacked our advance batteries at the Narrows on April 27th, but up to evening thousands of shells fired upon our batteries and infantry positions, resulted only in the wounding of a number of soldiers. The transports at Bahr were struck repeatedly by our shells and one was beached. We sunk some boats and sailing vessels.

"The British battleships Majestic and Triumph which had been damaged had to withdraw from the fighting line.

"For the last two days the main fleet has undertaken operations against the Narrows."

day Allied airmen have visited Belgium and bombarded Ostend and other towns and also attacks towns in southern Germany.

Nothing of importance has occurred along the western battlefield. German submarines have sunk the trawler Lilly Dale and the collier Mobile. German airmen, it is said, dropped bombs but without effect at the American steamer Cushing.

OFFICIAL BERLIN REPORT.

Aviators Have Been Active on the Coast—Tells of Bombardment.

Berlin, via wireless, April 30.—German army headquarters today gave out this report:

"Aviators have been active on the coast; at Ostend houses were damaged. The fortress at Dunkirk was helled yesterday by German artillery.

"Last night there was fighting between Steen stratete and Met Sas. German troops have fortified and hold bridge on the western bank of the canal near Steenstraete and Het Sas and on the east bank of the canal north of Ypres. Zouaves and Turcos attempted a charge against the German right wing, but this charge broke down under the German fire.

"In the Champagne district, north of LeMesnil, the French attempted to win back their former positions resulting in failure.

"In the Argonne district to the north of Four De Paris, a trench of the enemy was captured. German troops here took prisoner one French officer and 30 men and held the ground gained against repeated French counter attacks.

"Near Cornay, in the eastern part of the Argonne, an aeroplane of the enemy came to earth. The aviators were found to be dead.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle French attacks on positions conquered by us on the heights of the Meuse resulted in failure. Also to the north of Fliery a French charge failed with heavy losses.

"In the fighting on the coast of Meuse between April 24 and 28 the French lost in prisoners 63 officers including three regimental commanders and about 4,000 men.

"The fortifications of Harwich have been shelled from the air. (The dispatches from England last night said the Ipswich and Bury St. Edmunds had been shelled by a German airship with slight material damage and no loss of life. Harwich is ten miles to the southeast of Ipswich, while Bury St. Edmonds, where several bombs were dropped and two houses set on fire, is about 25 miles to the northwest of Ipswich.)

"The eastern arena of the war, the vanguards of the forces, advancing into northwestern Russia reached yesterday the railroad running from Duenaburg to Libau. The Russian forces did not offer serious resistance. Fighting is now going on near Szawle and Kaywarya (in Russian Poland north of Suwalki. Duenaburg is about 225 miles to the east of Libau. It is an important manufacturing city and it is desircbed as a great depot for the Russian artillery. The railroad line between these two points runs east and west through the province of Kovno and it is, roughly speaking, 130 miles to the north of the boundary line between Kovno and East Prussia.)

"Strong Russian attacks on our positions failed with heavy losses. German troops took prisoners five officers and 500 unwounded Russian soldiars.

"Further to the south between Kalwarya and Augustowo, Russian charges failed."

FRENCH CLAIM ADVANCE.

In Belgium North of Ypres—Progress on the Entire Front Is Made.

Paris, April 30.—The war office tonight made public th efollowing official communication:

"In Belgium, to the north of Ypres, our attacks have progressed on the whole front on a depth varying from 500 meters (about 1,600 feet) to one kilometer (two-thirds of a mile).

"We have taken two successive lnes of trenches and captured a great many prisoners.

"The correspondent of The Associated Press visited today the summit of Hartman's Weilerkopf, which the enemy has not attacked for the last two days.

"One of our airships has bombarded the railroad and sheds n the region of Valenciennes.

"One of our aeroplanes, which was destroyed by an explosion, fell inside the enemy's lines."

AMERICAN SHIP FIRED ON.

German Airships Drop Bombs at Vessel But No Damage Done.

London, April 30.—A Reuter dispatch from Rotterdam says the American steamer Cushing, from Philadelphia arrived at Rotterdam today and reported having been attacked by German airmen in the North Sea last Wednesday.

The airmen dropped two bombs but no damage was done.

The Cushing was flying the American flag at the time and her name was displayed on her sides in huge letters.

The Cushing left Philadelphia April 11 for Rotterdam via Deal. She is of 4,434 tons net register and 427 feet long.

TELLS OF WONDERLAND ALMOST UNBELIEVABLE

"There Isn't as Queer a Place in the Whole Country"

Mr. B. E. Rice, of Norfolk Southern Railroad, Has Found No Place Like "Bogue Banks"—Destined Great Resort.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., April 30.—B. E. Rice, land and industrial el dorado. The vegetation ranges almost from the tropic to the hardiest of the temperate sone growth. The most freakish thing about it is the sudden change from the tropic and semi-tropic to the temperate. Just as if a line were drawn, almost perfectly straight, north and south along the entire length of the island, the division is startlingly apparent. On one side of the imaginary line, the side next the ocean, palms and shrubs and vines of distinct hot climate varieties thrive, almost run riot. On the other side, although there is no perceptible change in the terrain, the plant growth is temperate to the utter exclusion of the tropical. There are great quantities of dogwood and other hard woods on the sound side, and the woods are magnificent. The part of this extraordinary condition hard to understand is that when one crosses this imaginary line into the "temperate" country the trees tower, straight and graceful, many feet above those on the "tropical side," which are gnarled and stumpy. There are places on the island, Mr. Rice firmly believes, where frost has never touched. He reiterates the claim of other admirers of this wonderland that anything that can be grown in the Bermudas or in the central part of North Carolina can be produced on "The Pines." The view from one of the high sand dunes is beautiful. The marshes are extravagant in color, with myriad lilies with wild flowers, and the woods are a riot of white and green and blossom shades.

Bogue Banks, Mr. Rice states, is intended to become an exclusive resort place unexcelled in the country. For 20 miles along the beach is an automobile track, a natural course that will not have to be touched to improve. The bathing from the sea beach, where the water warmed by the Gulf stream is almost always of ideal temperature, is possible almost the year through. Deer and other game abound.

Wilson Signs Nearly 100 Appointments of Postmasters

J. W. Mangum, of Charlotte, Accidentally Electrocuted in Washington, D. C.—Sculptor Borgium Studying Life of Vance.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., April 30.—Before leaving Washington for Williamstown, Mass., where Sunday he will attend the christening of his grandson, President Wilson signed nearly a hundred recess appointments to be postmasters. Those named for North Carolina were D. P. Stowe, Belmont; J. H. Aiken, Hickory; N. A. Brown, Red Springs, and Nannie McIlwaine Moore, Warrenton.

Guton Borglum, the sculptor engaged to make a statue of Senator Vance to be placed in Statuary Hall, in the Capitol, is here getting impressions about his subject. He conferred with Secretary Daniels and Peter Wilson. Mr. Wilson gave Mr. Borglum some interesting facts about Senator Vance's life.

Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels left here tonight on the government yacht Mayflower for a cruise in the vicinity of Norfolk. They were accompanied by two of their sons, John and Frank; Mrs. Daniels' mother, Mrs. Bagley, and Misses Ethel and Belle Bagley.

J. W. Mangum, of Charlotte, lost his life in the engine room of the Capital Refining Company, at Arlington Junction, Va., just across the river from Washington, this afternoon when his hand came in contact with a live electric wire. Mangum fell to the floor and his neck was broken. Mangum was chief electrician for the company and came to Washington about a year ago. P. R. A.

SUNDAY SERVICES

The Chautauqua closed; the churches are open. That was temporary. The churches remain. That was for entertainment and instruction. The churches call to worship. The one ministered to our human natures and our human needs. Most of us have enjoyed one. Now who will profit by the other? This other has claims upon us for the ministry of good and the offer of life. "Godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and that which is to come." In the churches this life is offered as the "gift of God." Come and receive or remain away and lose.

MR. JOHN ROWLAND DANIEL DEAD

Native of Bladen, Former Citizen of Columbus, Dies at Darlington, S. C.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., April 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Donald McRackan and Mrs. Laura Powell returned last night from Darlington, S. C., where they attended the funeral of their brother, Mr. John Rowland Daniel, who died of pneumonia Tuesday.

Mr. Daniel was born near Clarkton, Bladen county, November 18, 1871. He was the son of John R. and Amanda Daniel. He lived for 18 years in Whiteville. After leaving here he engaged in the lumber business, being connected with the Williams & McKeithan Lumber Company, at Lumber, S. C. Later he established the Daniel Lumber Company, of Darlington, S. C.

He was a regular attendant at the Presbyterian church, a member of the Masonic order and the Knights of Pythias.

In 1904 he married Miss Inez Lide, of Pinewood, S. C., who, with his two sisters, one-half brother, Mr. D. T. McKeithan, and two brothers, Messrs. J. A. and G. W. Daniel, of Darlington, survive him.

The following is from the Darlington News and Press:

"John Rowland Daniel has crossed the Great Divide and Darlington has lost one more of its real men. For fifteen years did he lend his moral and financial support to every movement which was for the betterment of this community, and his contributions to individual charity have been numberless. He was broad-minded, liberal and considerate of his fellow man in both views and acts, which is characteristic of the entire family. He was a community builder of the most desirable type, and Darlington suffers an irreparable loss."

BERRIES GOING FORWARD

STOMACH TROUBLES

Mr. Ragland Writes Interesting Letter on This Subject.

Madison Heights, Va.—Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of this place, writes: "I have been taking Thedford's Black-Draught for indigestion, and other stomach troubles, also colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I have ever used.

After taking Black-Draught for a few days, I always feel like a new man."

Nervousness, nausea, heartburn, pain in pit of stomach, and a feeling of fullness after eating, are sure symptoms of stomach trouble, and should be given the proper treatment, as your strength and health depend very largely upon your food and its digestion.

To get quick and permanent relief from these ailments, you should take a medicine of known curative merit.

Its 75 years of splendid success, in the treatment of just such troubles, proves the real merit of Thedford's Black-Draught. Safe, pleasant, gentle in action, and without bad after-effects, it is sure to benefit both young and old. For sale everywhere. Price 25c. N. C. 17.

CRAIG TAKES HAND IN FISH BOARD CONTEST

Over Appointment of Assistant Fish Commissioner.

Commission in Deadlock at Washington, N. C.—Unique Political Situation Developed—Laurinburg Mustered In.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 30.—Governor Craig, just back from Washington, N. C., reports adjustment of all differences between the State fisheries board and State Fish Commissioner H. L. Gibbs as to the appointment of an assistant commissioner. Harmonious relations for the future between the board and the fish commissioner are assured, he says.

An effort to have J. H. Leroy, of Elizabeth City, appointed over the protest of Commissioner Gibbs caused the trouble. The governor says Leroy, who was also opposed by Governor Craig, was not appointed and that Commissioner Gibbs recommended Mr. Morgan, of Hertford. It is the agreement of the commissioner and board upon Morgan that settles their differences that brought about invitation to Governor Craig to go to Washington to harmonize the fisheries matter.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 30.—Governor Craig has gone to Washington, N. C., where the State Board of Fisheries is in session, to take a hand in the difficulty that has developed there over the appointment of the two assistant State fish commissioners, it being impossible for State Fish Commissioner H. L. Gibbs and the majority of the members of the board to agree on the two assistants. The contest is over whether M. B. Sawyer, of Elisabeth City, or J. H. LeRoy, of Elisabeth City, shall be assistant fish commissioner.

Gibbs wants Sawyer as assistant and some of the members of the board want LeRoy, who was turned down by Governor Craig for the place of commissioner in favor of Gibbs, LeRoy being also very objectionable, as shown by recent correspondence of the Governor, to Senator Simmons, who is a near relative of Gibbs by marriage.

Charlotte-Greensboro Train Off.

The Corporation Commission issued a supplemental order today to the one given out earlier in the week as to the curtailment of passenger train service by the Southern Railway Co., permission being given in this latest pronouncement to cut out passenger train No. 8 and train No. 45 between Charlotte and Greensboro. This train has been leaving Charlotte as No. 8 at 3:30 a. m. and arriving at Greensboro at 7:10. The order also contains the requirement that the leaving time for train No. 44 at Charlotte, which has been 6 a. m. shall be set up to 5 o'clock so that it will make the same connections at Greensboro for Winston-Salem and Mount Airy that No. 8 has been making. No. 45, which is to come off, has been leaving Greensboro for Charlotte at 3:45 and reaching Charlotte at 7:10 p. m. There are no changes in the schedules of other afternoon Greensboro-Charlotte trains on account of taking off No. 45.

Laurinburg Military Company

Adjutant General Laurence W. Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, issued today commissions for the officers for the new company D, Third Infantry, for Louisburg, to take the place of the old Company D that was mustered out of service for failure to measure up to requirements. The officers are: Captain, Samuel Perry Boddie; lieutenants, Glenn LaFayette, Crowell, first, and Garland A. Ricks, second.

Naval Militia Practice Cruise.

Official notice has been received by Adjutant General Young that the North Carolina divisions of Naval Militia will embark for an annual cruise at Hampton Roads June 3 and be out until June 16 with Capt. C. D. Bradham, of Newbern, in command. They will be at Gardner's Bay training for target practice; thence to Newport, R. I., and then back to Gardner's Bay June 11 and 12 for actual target practice. June 12 to 15 will be spent at New river, New York, where they will have shore leave. Five divisions of naval militia will participate in the cruise—Newbern, Bellehaven, Washington, Hertford and Elizabeth City.

DR. AND MRS. GORRELL BEREAVED

Son of Member of Wake Forest Faculty Dead—College Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wake Forest, N. C., April 30.—Again the death angel has visited the town of Wake Forest and taken from its midst Charles Gorrell, the 14-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Gorrell. He was carried to the college hospital last Monday and was operated on about noon of that day for appendicitis. From the operation until about noon yesterday it was a struggle for life. Both faculty and students of the college have shown their sympathy for the bereaved family with several large wreaths of flowers.

In the sophomore contest in the Euzelian Literary Society last night for the improvement medal, Mr. J. C. Newton, of Casar, N. C., was the successful contestant.

The Coburn Players of New York city who have visited Wake Forest college for the last several years, will present on May 7 and 8 "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "The Imaginary Sick Man," and "Macbeth." Already about half of the student body have made application for season tickets.

Wake Forest's baseball season will close nex tTuesday on the home grounds when they play A. & M. This will be the second game with A. & M., they having won the first game (Easter) in Raleigh, 5 to 0.

Indiana Man's Kidney Troubles Disappear

"After suffering many months from kidney trouble," writes W. R. Fox, of Noblesville, Ind., "and after having tried many remedies and prescriptions, I purchased a box of Foley Kidney Pills. They not only did me more good than any other remedy I had ever used, but they positively set my kidneys right. Other members of my family have used same with similar results."

From every state in the Union come unsolicited letters telling of satisfactory results from Foley Kidney Pills. When the kidneys become clogged up, get sluggish, and filter and strain out of the blood only part of the poisonous waste matter, the balance remains and circulates through the system, uric acid forms, and swollen, painful joints and muscles are the result.

Foley Kidney Pills cleanse and tone up the kidneys, so that backache, rheumatism, sore muscles, aching joints, annoying bladder disorders and irregularities soon disappear.

SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1915.

It's to stand way off and laugh at mere man's idea that he is all Jekyl and no Hyde.

"When the wicked rule, the people mourn," but when the Democrats rule the wicked howl.

A man often passes off as one of the boys when he is playing the part of a henchman with all sorts of a bench.

A Baltimore undertaker advertises a first class funeral, in a limosine hearse, for $75 to $100. We care not for a funeral at any price.

Consulted Platt, 'cause Platt was the real boss. Sure, Mike! When one knows who is master of the situation, it would be foolish indeed to see his butler first.

A boy's father recognizes the Hyde in him early in the game and has to lick the hide off him if he ever expects his hopeful to develop into a Dr. Jekyl.

New York is very much disturbed because manufacturers are encroaching upon Fifth avenue with factories. Manufacturers should come to Wilmington rather than get in bad for spoiling a swell street in Gotham.

Now that it has been discovered that President Wilson's policy has not prevented anybody from seeing and seizing new opportunities, late calamity howlers are seizing all they can get and saying how fine it is.

Barnum of circus fame remarked that "the American people love to be fooled." The showman spoke the truth, but the American people ought to be ashamed to permit themselves to be fooled by a lot of men who are all sorts of a circus, not to say the whole show.

The new Republican mayor of Chicago promises prosperity to the people of their city. Probably he sees prosperity coming in spite of him and believes that there are enough sap-heads in Chicago to believe that it will be brought back on at his beck and call or by the wave of his wondrous wand.

T. R. testified in court at Syracuse that he knew Boss Platt was the real ruler of the Republican party in New York and for that reason he consulted Platt. That's what we had already suspected. When you want to get credit for a suit of clothes, you know it's no use to consult the dummy. Of course, you always go to the boss. "When you want wool, go to a sheep's house."

Senator Root has appointed William Barnes, Jr., as chairman of the constitutional convention committee on legislative powers. When Colonel Roosevelt was President he pronounced Root the ablest man in America. Now that Roosevelt is defending himself in an action brought by Barnes for libel, Senator Root's recognition of the Republican "boss," so severely denounced by Roosevelt, gives the colonel reason to believe that his attacks on Barnes have had no weight with so distinguished a Republican as Mr. Root. While Barnes is endeavoring to vindicate his honor in court at Syracuse, he is having honor heaped upon him by the party's most eminent statesman.

What a fine showing a smart man can make for himself when he goes on the stand and makes it appear that he hasn't done a thing but try to get the Mr. Hyde out of the other fellow so the Dr. Jekyl in him may represent his true individuality. Hark, the recrudescence of the Biblical injunction about first removing the beam out of our own eye before we back another fellow up against the wall to remove a mote from one of his peepers. What a vain task a reformer has in working overtime on an incorrigible and perverse male of the species who fights back while the operation is being performed. The over-confidence which some men have in their own ability to get the Mr. Hyde out of other men might sooner or later induce them to undertake the impossible stunt of squeezing blood out of a rutabaga.

A NICE KETTLE OF FISH.

The State's great fishing interest, so much in need of conservation and encouragement, seems to have been dragged into politics. Pity! It is purely an industrial and economic question which concerns not the East alone but the whole State—not Democrats nor Republicans, but all the people of North Carolina. The last Legislature passed an act establishing a State Fish Commission and providing for the conservation and encouragement of this great interest, and what is most needed in carrying out all the legislation so provided is intelligence and efficiency—not politics and bickering.

In order to make the commission a non-partisan board, the Legislature provided in the creating act that both parties should be represented on it, and when Governor Craig named the members of the commission he appointed a Republican as well as Democrats. Next came the appointment of the State Fish Commissioner, the chief executive officer of the fisheries bureau, we might term it. When Governor Craig named the commission he also instructed or recommended that the board elect Mr. H. L. Gibbs, of Pamlico county, as commissioner. Whereupon there has developed a political stew—probably a tempest in a teapot. The matter is about teapot size and for that reason we have hesitated to dip into it.

Wilmington is the center of a large fishing interest, and it is not concerned in any politics in the question, but is interested deeply in the effectiveness of the fishing legislation and whether men of sufficient knowledge, capability and energy are to be entrusted with a matter of such great importance. The State has not yet been brought to adequately appreciate its importance, but it will some time within 25 to 100 years from now. We don't care who is fish commissioner, but we hate to see the thing dragged into a political arena about two-by-four. Governor Craig is blamed for appointing one man for commissioner solely because another candidate for the place was objectionable to Senator Simmons. The only objection the Governor had to the opponent of Mr. Gibbs was that he was persona non grata to the Senator, so it is said, hence the political feature of the present stew.

Governor Craig frankly states his reasons for appointing the commissioner, and with respect to criticism of his course in Eastern North Carolina fishing districts, Raleigh reports a day or two ago stated that the row about the fish commissioner was inspired by Republicans. However, the Newbern Sun (Dem.) published in one of the chief fishing centers, has this to say on that point:

"We do not know what part the Republicans are taking but we can say that Governor Craig's appointment of a country lawyer as fish commissioner is not calculated to help the Democratic party any. The people who advocated a fish commission bill were serious about it and had no idea that it was going to be made a political football for the politicians to kick around. Governor Craig and his friends may think that the protest is being inspired by Republicans, but people acquainted with the facts know that there are lots of life-long Democrats who are thoroughly disgusted about this matter."

The Greensboro News concludes as to the Sun's view that some weight necessarily attaches to the Newbern paper's testimony by reason of the locality for which it speaks. Rather hoping that the Sun's remarks about it are "not the heart of the matter," the Greensboro News (Ind.) goes on to say:

"High hopes were hung upon this fisheries legislation. It was felt it might easily prove the fine fruitage of an untoward legislative season. It is just possible that the storm already arising may indicate that something has been stirred up that ought to have been stirred up. The governor insists that his man is all right. By the way it will be noted that the governor, who is put to a lot of trouble explaining about it, speaks of the Gibbs selection as an appointment outright. We do not know just where in the scheme of things this leaves the commission; but it is a simple situation as to the governor and Gibbs. If the governor has put him in office the governor is responsible for him."

To a man up a tree, there seems to be more politics in the whole matter from start to finish than has been necessary. The Governor's own statement shows that he considered politics in making the appointment, but even if politics has been messed up in it, the main thing is whether anybody appointed or who wanted to be appointed knows enough about the fishing interest, or will make a study of it, to develop the interest as it surely should be and can be developed by the application of intelligence.

The most regrettable thing about the whole matter would be one more inexcusable failure of North Carolina to successfully set on foot so simple an undertaking as promoting the fish industry. We can only wait and see how the Governor's handling of the matter pans out in practical results—politics or no politics. Shoot the politics!

WORDS WITHOUT REASON.

What confidence can be put in a man's judgment when he has no foundation upon which to base it, or what reliance can be put in the word of a man or criticism from a man when he jumps at a conclusion and rattles it off in the shape of clap-trap? For instance, what reasonable man would be sap-headed enough to give a serious thought to the half-baked and absurd utterance of the former Republican Secretary of the Navy concerning the responsibility of the present Democratic Secretary of the Navy? The New York World thus aptly refers to it:

"Former Secretary of the Navy Meyer is somewhat rash and hasty in laying the blame for the loss of the submarine F-4, off Honolulu, upon Secretary Daniels personally. Might it not be well for him to restrain his zeal until the cause of the accident is made known after an examination of the boat? In due time, by the efforts of the navy, it will be raised, and experts quite as competent as Mr. Meyer may be able to speak with authority where he speaks from bias."

Former Secretary Meyer not only speaks from bias but without the least knowledge of the facts. He talks more like a wooden-headed man than he does like a man responsible for his judgment and worthy of having confidence put in his utterances. Meyer does not know anything more about the real cause of the accident to the F-4 than does the man in the moon. Neither does Secretary Daniels. Neither does any of us. It is impossible for any man to know until investigation reveals the cause of the accident. It may have been on account of defective construction, or it may have been on account of the incompetency or carelessness of the commander or the crew of the submarine.

A man of hasty judgment and words spoken without wisdom might jump at the conclusion that defective construction was the cause of the accident. He might jump at the conclusion that the submarine was defectively constructed when Meyer was Secretary of the Navy, and, therefore, that he is responsible for having a lot of junk palmed off on the Navy. Of course, that would be unreasonable, unjustifiable and absurd, but not a bit more so than the totally irresponsible criticism of Meyer. Since it was impossible for him to have spoken authoritatively but actually has spoken offhand as reported, we know ten-year-old boys who would reject the idea that he could be ranked as trustworthy authority.

WHY CAN'T WILMINGTON GET DYE WORKS?

We do not hear so much of late about the shortage of dyestuffs among the cotton manufacturers because of the European war's interference with the importation of dyes from Germany. At least five American concerns with ample capital will manufacture synthetic coloring material, and now comes the report that two large German chemical and analine concerns are establishing branch plants in New Jersey to supply the genuine German products hitherto supplied to American manufacturers by chemical concerns in Germany.

The German manufacturers doubtless are establishing branches in the United States, because they are aware of the great demand which this country will afford for years to come. The war, of course, has interfered with German enterprises as well as with her commerce, and so the chemical manufacturers have decided to make their dyes in America.

Probably the foreign chemical companies believe that the war is yet to last a long time and that there will be indefinite interference with commerce. German enterprise and capital are coming here to help us out and to seize the present opportunity for establishing themselves where the war will not interfere with their business. Besides that, the war has brought the German chemical concerns a labor problem which they will avoid by bringing their factories here.

The war in Europe has accentuated the opportunities for chemical industries in America. Our own capitalists will take advantage of it, and it would be a good idea for Wilmington to induce some of the concerns to locate here where they can have the advantage of a port which is within less than a day's rail run to the center of the cotton manufacturing industry in the South. Charlotte really is in the center of the South's manufacturing region, and the direct rail haul from Wilmington to all Southern textile industries is a great advantage which dyeworks would have here. Raw materials and finished products can be shipped by both sea and land, while a line drawn inland from Wilmington to Alabama will show that it cleaves the districts where nearly nine-tenths of the South's cotton factories are located.

This is the best time ever to prosecute a get-factories campaign for Wilmington. The war in Europe has opened up other new opportunities besides those in the dyestuffs line, and evidently we now have the opportunity of a lifetime to make known Wilmington's fine adaptibilities for all branches of manufacturing. The chief advantage is transportation and distributing facilities, while labor is plentiful and the climatic and general advantages of this section are among the inducements which manufacturers will consider if their attention is challenged in the right way.

How many other European industries are likely to be induced to come to America?

TRADE RECOVERY AFTER WAR.

Already in America, industry and trade are rapidly recovering from the shock of war. Already papers of the protectionist type report that New England shows a condition of industrial activity and healthy commercial development. "Every large center," it is said, "has to tell a story of prosperity."

The future trade in this country is assured, but when the war is over how will it be with Europe? Certainly, we will have a great lead on the manufacturing and commercial nations beyond the sea. Already the manufacturers of France are considerng the matter of trade recovery after the war. According to a Paris dispatch, the vast Federation of French Manufacturers and Merchants has begun an inquiry which does not come too soon. All the chambers of commerce and organized industrial and business associations of France have been asked to express their opinion on the following urgent question: How can the return to normal business life be made as soon as possible after the war is over? And what are the necessary public measures to be taken for hastening such a return?

No matter who is victorious, no matter whether the war closes up with a smash or wears on to universal exhaustion, no matter whether peace comes for good or only as a few years' truce with new war always along the horizon, such questions need to be answered long beforehand. Otherwise neither legislative action nor business energies will be ready for the necessary decisions when the time comes. Production and the distribution of products, which Europe needs for her own consumption or must exchange with the rest of the world, have to be brought back to old lines or else fall into new lines, which each country must try to work out as favorably to itself as possible.

During the war Europe's prinicapl manufacturing nations are engaging in a struggle for existence, and after the war it will tax their resources to recover their commerce and trade. Meanwhile America has an immense agricultural, industrial and commercial opportunity that has no cloud over it.

When a fellow is young he thinks he is attending a picnic when a crowd of young men and young ladies spend the day on a pond where malaria is on tap for all comers.

SUPERINTENDENT OF STREETS

To the Editor of The Star:

I believe every club woman said a quiet amen Friday morning after reading the article from the pen of one of our young business men in regard to the efficient work of our superintendent of streets, Mr. McAllister. Do the citizens of the city realize what he has accomplished since he took up the work? Conditions are not ideal yet but very much improved. Why not let well enough alone, assured that the future will see even greater improvements under Mr. McAllister's watchful supervision. A member of the Red Cross Society was heard to say recently: "The work that man has done for the Red Cross Society the last two months has been invaluable and just as we get a man who is efficient in such important work some one wants to put him out. A city must be clean to be beautiful and must be started from a sound municipal foundation. Let's help our present superintendent and so show him our appreciation of his efforts in helping so splendidly to give us a 'City Beautiful.'"

Board of Health Fights Tuberculosis Through Picture Posters.

(State Board of Health)

The next thrust made by the State Board of Health against the great white plague is a big tuberculosis poster. This poster carries two columns of contrast pictures. One column through its pictures and captions tells how tuberculosis is contracted; the other columns tells how it can be avoided. The center of the poster carries in red and black face type the main facts about this terrible disease and impresses the importance of these facts upon even the casual observer.

The poster is attractive in appearance and is suitable to post in schools, churches, postoffices, stores, offices, and in any other place where it is likely to attract the eye and send home its message. It is made of strong cardboard and is 14 inches wide by 22 inches long.

By writing the State Board of Health, these posters may be had free.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"Man wants but little here below," but eevn a little is too much, if it is calculated to make him thirst for more.—Wilmington Star. So the Star thinks the quotation should be amended so as to read: "Man wants but little at a time."—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Courts in this town and county are not considerate at all. Men convicted of selling liquor used to be let off with a fine, but this has been changed. Fining a tiger did no good, and now they are sent to the roads, where they cannot ply their trade; but as soon as they serve time they go at it again.—Greensboro Record.

"I will come, but you are not an easy boss," telegraphed Mr. Roosevelt to Thomas C. Platt. That was incorrect. Mr. Platt was a very easy boss. The correspondence read at Syracuse shows that he did most of the work of governor, but gave to Mr. Roosevelt all the salary and honor of the office. What more could a boss do for one of his favorite henchmen?—New York World.

It would be interesting to know exactly how much military training those Canadian troops, who have so greatly distinguished themselves near Ypres, had before they left for the front. Probably very few of them had ever seen active service, and the great majority barely had time to be licked into the roughest sort of military shape before they confronted the finest army in Europe. Most of them were recruits fresh from the shop or the farm, the office or the factory. But in a few months they snatch the laurels of battle from the professional soldiers around them and saved the British lines in a moment of tremendous crisis and danger. A large proportion of Kitchener's army is of this same raw material, but there is no sign that the recruits are not fighting as bravely as the regulars. The Canadian war freshmen have covered themselves with glory, as have the military cubs from other quarters. With that object lesson before us, we may properly ask ourselves whether Americans could not do as well in time of need?—Savannah News.

The Danville Register is approving the proposed election of a woman as principal of one of the schools of that city and points to the established policy in Lynchburg in vindication. Charlotte might appropriately have been cited. The Queen City has not less than five women principals and the success of their work has made the woman principal a fixture in school administration. As The Register says, "It is true that a woman will not necessarily make an efficient principal because she is a woman any more than a man would because he is a man. It all depends on the temperament, equipment and experience of the person selected." A pleasant feature of the local situation is the fact that, although the duties of principal are exacting in their requirements, the election of five hasn't even begun to exhaust the available material.—Charlotte Observer.

With pain we observe this injustice to Spartanburg county from the Spartanburg Herald: "The population of Spartanburg county is 83,465." According to the estimate of the census bureau, the population of Spartanburg was, July 1, 1913, 89,282. While this is no more than estimate, it is the informed estimate of the official and authorized estimators of the government whose business it is to be right and whose deliverances are to be accepted as true until contradicted by better authority. In 1910 when the census was taken Charleston had the largest population (88,594) of the South Carolina counties, but the July, 1913, estimate was for Charleston, only 88,784. Since that time Spartanburg's lead has been increased. Spartanburg has long been at the head of the list in white population. In population Spartanburg stands first among the forty-four South Carolina counties.—Columbia State.

WHAT TO DO FOR ITCHING SKINS

Eczema, ringworm and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need not hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is, the resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of resinol ointment and resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful that thousands of other physicians have been prescribing it constantly for 20 years.

Resinol stops itching instantly, and almost always heals the eruption quickly and at little cost. Resinol ointment and resinol soap can be bought at any druggist's.

CLEARS BLOTCHY SKIN

Try resinol soap for a week. You will be surprised to see how it clears and freshens your complexion, even in that short time. Used for the shampoo, it removes dandruff and keeps the hair live, rich and lustrous. This is because it contains the soothing, healing resinol medication.

S. A. LYNCH PURCHASES THE SCHLOSS CIRCUIT

Biggest Theatrical Deal of North Carolina.

Asheville Man Makes Over Leases and Franchises of Local Theatrical Corporation—Includes the Academy Here.

The Schloss Theatre Circuit, a Wilmington corporation, founded about 20 years ago by the late Mr. S. A. Schloss, and at the present time holding leases on the leading legitimate theatrical houses of the principal North Carolina cities and controlling the Klaw & Erlenger franchise for this territory, has been purchased by Mr. S. A. Lynch, a prominent theatrical man of Asheville, N. C., who is already operating vaudeville and motion picture theatres in a number of Southern cities. While no announcement has been made as to the consideration involved, the transaction is in all probability the biggest theatrical deal ever consummated in North Carolina.

Mr. Lynch's purchase includes the lease on the Academy of Music in this city, the Academy of Music at Charlotte, the Academy of Music at Raleigh and the Asheville Auditorium.

The lease on the theatre at Winston-Salem, also controlled by the Schloss Circuit, was not included in the transaction with Mr. Lynch, but it is understood that it will be disposed of separately to a Winston-Salem theatrical man, the deal having been already practically consummated.

The Schloss Circuit for a number of years has been the principal theatrical circuit in this part of the South. The late Mr. S. A. Schloss, the founder, built up one of the biggest businesses of its kind during the years he was actively at the head of the circuit, and after his death the business has been continued very successfully by his widow, Mrs. M. B. Schloss, from whom Mr. Lynch has now purchased it. At various times the circuit has included theatres in several of the adjoining States, and through its booking connections it did a big business in North Carolina and these States.

Just how the change will affect the management of the theatres involved is not known as yet. Mr. Paul M. Comes is the manager of the Academy of Music here; the academy at Raleigh is managed by Mr. Marx Nathan, a nephew of the late Mr. Schloss and at Charlotte Mr. Paul Crovo is manager of the Academy of Music.

Mr. Lynch has long been known as one of the leading theatrical men of the State, and through the purchase of the Schloss Circuit he will probably take rank as the biggest theatrical man of the several Southern States. It is expected that through the connections he has heretofore commanded and those acquired by his purchase of the Schloss circuit, the principal cities of North Carolina will be furnished with a splendid theatrical programme each season.

Asheville, N. C., April 30.—The biggest theatrical deal of the State was announced from the offices of S. A. Lynch, of this city, today, when announcement was made to the effect that Mr. Lynch has purchased the leases and franchises of the Schloss Theatre Circuit, in North Carolina, including the Asheville Auditorium, the Charlotte Academy of Music, the Raleigh Academy of Music and the Wilmington Academy of Music.

The deal was made with Mrs. M. B. Schloss, the widow of the late S. A. Schloss, and places Mr. Lynch in control of the legitimate theatres of the State's four leading cities. For many years past he has maintained vaudeville and moving picture theatres at many Southern cities, having three theatres at Asheville. The new lessee takes over the franchises with the Klaw & Erlenger Co., of New York, and his conenction with various other booking agencies will enable him to furnish high grade attractions to the cities at which he has leased the principal legitimate theatres.

Of the four amusement houses leased two, those at Asheville and Wilmington, are owned by the municipalities, while those at Raleigh and Charlotte are owned by individuals.

NEW SERIES OPEN TODAY.

By Two Strong Building and Loan Associations.

Today will be a busy day in building and loan circles, as two associations, the Co-Operative, of which Mr. Thos. H. Wright is secretary, and the Carolina, of which Mr. L. W. Moore is secretary, both begin opening a new series this morning.

The Wilmington people are great believers in building and loan and practically every business man in Wilmington is a shareholder. The ladies also come in for many thousand of shares and even the children carry a share or two. It is a splendid habit to acquire and for many it is undeniably the easiest and best way to save money.

The building and loan associations have been the largest single factor in building homes here and it is safe estimate to say that fully 85 per cent of the new buildings are erected on money borrowed through some one of the fifteen local associations.

LECTURE AT ST. JOHN'S.

Missionary to Alaska Will Tell of His Work There.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Rev. C. E. Betticher, Jr., of Fairbanks, Alaska, will speak at St. John's Parish House, Third and Red Cross streets, about his interesting mission field. His address will be illustrated with stereopticon slides which he has had specially prepared for this purpose. The Rev. Mr. Betticher has had a very successful career in Alaska, and it is a prvilege to have him visit Wilmington. The public is invited to attend the lecture tonight, also to hear him at St. John's Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

To Close at 6 P. M.

The paint and hardware stores of the city, beginning May 1 and until October 1, will close at 6 p. m. each day, except Saturdays, when they will close at 10. The stores that will observe these closing hours are as follows: [illegible] Hardware Company, J. [illegible] Co., M. W. Divine, Davis [illegible] Company, Cape Fear Hardware Company, W. E. CRUISERS SUPPLIED FROM WILMINGTON?

This Port in Limelight in New York Paper

Neutrality Expert Says German Commerce Destroyers at Newport News Received Their Stores at Sea from Here.

That the German auxiliary cruisers Prince Eitel Friedrich and Kronprinz Wilhelm, recently interned at Newport News, Va., after a long and sensational career as commerce destroyers on the high seas, received their supplies from the port of Wilmington and that the cutting off of these supplies at length forced the converted cruisers to seek shelter in Newport News harbor, is the startling information given out by one C. B. Means, who has figured more or less prominently in the North for weeks in connection with this nation's neutrality, and published in the edition of the New York Times which reached Wilmington yesterday morning.

While almost incredible to those who have observed the course of events in local marine circles since the outbreak of the war, yet the report is given so emphatically by Mr. Means that the report will be interesting, even if not true. The New York paper carries the story of Mr. Means' latest activities under a four-deck head on its fourth page of yesterday and while the reference to Wilmington is merely incidental, it is none the less pertinent to his claim that he was responsible for causing the German auxiliary cruisers to intern and spice is added to the narrative from the fact that he promises still further disclosures.

Means not long ago uncovered a plot to supply candy, cigars and the latest phonograph records to the British navy via tugs from South Brooklyn, N. Y., and in the New York paper yesterday says that he caused the German cruisers to intern at Newport News. He has also turned his activities to Chas. M. Schwab in connection with the alleged supply of submarines to Great Britain, and the New York Times thinks enough of his opinions and investigations of the subject to quote from him with reference to these submarines and alleged violation of neutrality to the extent of nearly a column in its issue of yesterday. Referring to the Schwab matter and concluding its interview with Mr. Means, the New York Times says:

"When questioned at his headquarters at the Hotel Manhattan for details and proofs of this statement, Mr. Means was unwilling to commit himself to definite assertions.

"'I have investigated this matter in the course of many months' work,' he said, 'using my own detectives, whom I know I can trust.'

"When asked if the secret agents of the State Department had furnished the information with which he said United States officials are provided, he at first left the impression that no such investigation had been made, and that Mr. Bryan had taken Mr. Schwab at his word. Later he implied that some such investigation had been made, but said that he did not know that the State Department had any information conflicting with his own.

"When asked for positive information and details as to any such inestigation or hearing in prospect, Mr. Means refused to commit himself. He furnished many names of boilermakers and other expert mechanics from Brooklyn, Quincy, Mass., and Weymouth, Mass., who, he said, had been sent into Canada under contract 'in violation of the Canadian laws,' and asserted that one man from Chicago had been shot at the gate of the Vickers plant because he had forgotten the password. The interpretation of the Evarts ruling, he said, was up to the State Department, but the investigation was a question of facts.

Denied at Schwab's Office.

"At Mr. Schwab's office this statement was given out:

"'We have broken no neutrality laws, and the Government is satisfied on that point. We are building no submarines in this country, and Mr. Schwab has kept his agreement of some time ago with Mr. Bryan.'

"Mr. Means describes himself as 'head of the peace propaganda of the United States.' He was unwilling yesterday to give names of those interested, but said that he was backed by the interests which were losing financially by the war and were doing all they could to get it stopped and to cut off American aid to either side.

"'I made the Prinz Eitel Friedrich and the Kronprinz Wilhelm intern,' said Mr. Means, 'by putting a stop to the supplies which were being run out to them from Wilmington, N. C. No, I am not connected with any German interests; the peace propaganda is absolutely neutral. If you don't believe me, wait till a Staats-Zeitung reporter comes in, a few minutes from now. I'm going to raise his hair. In fact, the next big story I'm going to break will be against the Germans—something big.'

"Mr. Means said that he had at times been 'allied with' the Burns and other detective agencies, but had never been employed by them. At the Burns agency it was said that he had been in their employ for a short time. Mr. Means also said that the Evarts decision was 'a prestige on the protest of Chile'."

MR. JOHN S. RAMOS MARRIED.

Wedded to Wealthy Divorcee Several Weeks Ago.

Friends of Mr. John S. Ramos, formerly of this city, and now traveling for the Hotel Equipment Company, of Atlanta, Ga., learned from him yesterday that he is now a married man. His wife was formerly Mrs. Maurice Murray Cousins, a wealthy divorcee of Kansas City. Mr. Ramos met her in Atlanta, Monday, April 5th, and they were married a week later at Anderson, S. C.

Mrs. Ramos has gone to Kansas City to get her little daughter, and from there she will go to Richmond, Va., where Mr. Ramos' people live, and will be joined by him there.

Mr. Ramos, in receiving the congratulations of his friends here, says that it was a case of love at first sight.

Close Saturday Afternoons.

Beginning with today and on each Saturday afternoon until October 1, the different offices at the court house will close at 1 o'clock. This is in accordance with the custom of allowing the county officers and employes a half-holiday on Saturdays during the summer months.

CHAUTAUQUA WILL END WITH TONIGHT'S NUMBER

Alice Nielsen Features Programme This Evening.

Record Audience Expected to Greet Famous Prima Donna Tonight—Many Pledges For Tickets Next Year.

PROGRAMME TODAY

3:30 P. M.—Children's hour at Bear Memorial School, Miss Vivian Ditto.

3:30 P. M.—Dramatic lecture, "The Martyrdom of Fools," Thos. Brooks Fletcher.

8 P. M.—Song recital, Alice Nielsen.

Wilmington's second annual Redpath Chautauqua will come to an end this evening, with a song recital by Alice Nielsen, one of the world's most famous prima donna sopranos, as the closing number. It is expected that the record audence of the week—and all have been large—will hear Miss Nielsen. This afternoon Thomas Brooks Fletcher will deliver his lecture, "The Martyrdom of Fools."

The Chautaukua this year has been easily up to the Redpath standard, and already practically enough tickets have been pledged to assure the Chautauqua again next year.

Large audiences were in evidence yesterday and last night. Dr. Henry Clark gave another of his popular lectures yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, his subject being "Marriage and After," a splendid concert was given yesterday afternoon at 3:30 by the Christine Giles-Bingham Company; at 4 o'clock former Governor Ashton C. [illegible]erger, of Nebraska, delivered an inspirng lecture on "Political Patriotism," and last night was joy night with Ralph Bingham and the Christine Giles-Bingham Company furnishing the entertainment.

Ralph Bingham, the inimitable, had charge of the entertainment last evening. He is full of humor and with his long experience on the stage is able to present a programme of great variety. His monologues kept the audience in an unroar. He plays the violin with wonderful skill and is also conversant with piano music. He can be sad, too, and his rendition of one of Kipling's poems was a splendid piece of work. He is a master of dialect and possesses the rare art of not overdoing it. He is especially good in telling stories in negro dialect and his story of the 'possum hunt last night was done with consummate art.

Previous to Mr. Bingham's entertainment last night the Christine Giles-Bingham Company of four members gave a concert. Mrs. Bingham sang several selections. She posses a sweet soprano voice and her enunciation is especially good. She also plays the violin and her last number was a violin obligato in which she was assisted by the other members of the company.

Former Governor Ashton C. Shallenberger, of Nebraska, was heard by a large audence yesterday afternoon in an address on "Political Patriotism." The lecture dealt with political questions which were discussed in a remarkably sane manner. He showed that the true greatness of a nation does not consist in its wealth or in the size of its population but in the ideals of its people. In its early history the material side is apt to be emphasized, he said, but as nation becomes mature attention is more and more fixed upon the things that are worth while.

Previous to the lecture the Christine Giles-Bingham company gave a concert.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher, who will lecture this afternoon on "The Martyrdom of Fools," is one of the best known of the younger dramatic orators who is now on his 10th year on the platform.

The fame of Miss Nielsen, whose song recital tonight will be the feature of the whole chautauqua, is well-known here, as well as all over this country and Europe. A native of Tennessee, she began her musical career in her teens, has been the prima donna soprano with the Metropolitan and Boston Opera Companies, and is the first artist of a fame so widely celebrated to appear on the Chautauqua circuits.

It is expected that she will be greeted by the largest audience ever turning out to hear a song recital in Wilmington. Reserve seats for the recital will go on sale at the Y. M. C. A. this morning at 9 o'clock.

FUNERAL OF MR. T. G. FUTCH.

Conducted at Castle Haynes Thursday Afternoon—Pallbearers.

The feuneral of Mr. T. G. Futch, of Castle Haynes, was held from his residence there on Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church, this city, officiating. A large number of friends gathered to pay a last sad tribute of respect to his memory. A pathetic incident of the service was the reading of a letter from a daughter who could not be present at the services. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. T. Simpson, J. R. Hardie, W. B. Hand, R. W. Corbett, H. J. Blanchard and E H. Shiver.

Ladies for McAllister.

The participation of the ladies in the selection of at least some of those officials elective by the city council upon its re-organization after the election on May 4th is presaged by the information that yesterday a number of the woman's clubs of the city began the circulation of petitions to the council strongly advocating Mr. John C. McAllister for re-election as street superintendent. The ladies of Sorosis and the Red Cross Society are active in their support, according to information, and other clubs will be asked to join in the movement and sign the petitions which will be circulated today. The Star is asked to make this announcement so that the petitions may be signed as largely as possible.

Trip to Sea Sunday.

Another of those delightful trips to Southport and to sea, if the weather permits, is announced by Capt. John W. Harper, of the steamer Wilmington, for Sunday. The steamer will leave her dock at the foot of Princess street at 10 a. m., and returning will reach the city about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Fifty cents per week, $100 3 1-2 years. Special investment series opens today. Carolina B. & L. Association, 123 Princess street.

TAX LISTING TIME IS HERE

Listers Begin Work in Wilmington Township Today and in County Tuesday—Assessments.

Tax listing in Wilmington township begins this morning and is the country townships next Tuesday morning, to continue throughout the month of May. The listers for Wilmington township will occupy the basement of the court house, while it is left with the listers in the several rural townships to select a convenient place for taking the lists, usually at some centrally located store or at the residence of the lister. The hours for listing will be from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The tax listers for Wilmington township are Messrs. H. K. Nash, B. F. King and Walter Rutland, while in the rural townships the listers are as follows:

Cape Fear—J. Herbert Johnston.

Federal Point—S. T. Keyes.

Harnett—J. N. Shepard at Seven-mile post; A. B. Sandlin at Seagate.

Masonboro—Addison Hewlett.

The quadrennial assessment of property will also begin all over the county Monday morning or rather Tuesday, for on Monday at noon the township assessors will meet with Mr. C. W. Worth, the county assessor, at the court house, for final instructions as to their duties.

The listers, in taking the lists this year, will leave the valuation of real property blank, to be filled in after the assessors have made their reports.

The listing in New Hanover county this year, as last, will be done under the new system, worked out by County Auditor John A. Orrell, whereby, in Wilmington township, the lists are taken in duplicate, by carbon, one for the State and county and one for the city. These forms are also filled out in advance, where the person listing has real property, as records of all transfers of property are kept in the office of the county auditor, and when the person listing comes up to list, all that is necessary to check over the real property, fill in his personal property and let him sign and take the oath. This system not only is a great time-saver, but also eliminates confusion and errors. New Hanover, so far as is known, is the only county in the State employing this modern system, permission having been secured from the State Tax Commission to use it.

Attention is called to the fact that the people living in the territory recently annexed by the city, who have heretofore listed with the listers in rural townships, must this year list their property in Wilmington township, and for city, as well as State and county taxes. They can list at any time during May, the sooner the more convenient for all concerned.

Preparatory to the meetings to be held Monday all over the State, when the township assessors will meet with the county assessors for final instructions relative to the assessment of property, the State Tax Commission has issued a personal letter to each of the assessors, fully outlining their duties under the recently enacted Revenue and Machinery Acts.

The letter calls attention to the fact that the county assessors are expected to be the representatives of the State Tax Commission in their respective counties, and that the only measure of assessment known to the Constitution of North Carolina and the statute law of the State is that all property, real and personal, shall be assessed equally according to its real value in money.

"The most important feature of the assessment this year will be the assessment of real property," declared the letter. "This assessment must stand for four years, and throughout that period will be principal basis of revenue required for State, county and municipal purposes. There must be an increase in the assessment this year, and we desire you to impress this fact upon the township assessors. The last assessment having been in 1911, there has been a substantial increase in the value of real property since that time and the increased needs of growing counties and State requires that this increase in values be shown in increased assessments. It would not be proper for the State Tax Commission to say in advance what the increase should be in your county. To do this would be to forestall the judgment which the local assessors and the several county assessors are expected to apply to this important matter."

The Tax Commission emphasizes particularly the income tax, calling attention to the fact that many people liable to this tax have failed to pay it in the past and that many counties in the State have listed no income taxes. The letter reads:

"We wish the county assessors to call special attention of each township assessor to this and instruct them to ask of every taxpayer who they think earns in excess of $1,250.00 per year the direct question "What was your income the past year?" The list-taker or assessor should not merely be content with the fact that the taxpayer fails to insert in the abstract his income in excess of $1,250.00. If it is a person who the list taker has reason to think has an income in excess of $1,250.00, it is the duty of the list taker to make explicit inquiry in respect to the matter and to require the taxpayer to answer fully and clearly in respect to it. The county assessor himself will know of many people in each township who are liable for income tax. We would suggest that he make a list of these, either by reference to the tax list or by casting over in his own mind the names of those who should pay, and furnish this list to each township assessor and direct him to ascertain the facts from the persons therein named."

Further calling attention to privilege and license taxes, to discovering unlisted credits and solvent credits, the Tax Commission outlines in the letter the duties of the county assessors. The fact that there has been complaint that the holdings of large property holders have been assessed at too low a figure compared to their actual value was impressed in their letter. The county assessors are urged not to be deterred from standing out for proper assessments because of the fact that the county equalization board may decide against them, this being a matter left finally in the discretion of the State Tax Commission."

City and Suburban Series.

What is said elsewhere in today's paper with reference to the two other strong building and loan associations that open new series today will apply with equal force to the new series, also to be opened today, by the City and Suburban Building and Loan Association, of which Mr. W. A. McGirt is secretary, with offices in the Masonic Temple. The City and Suburban has a strong board of directors and makes an especial appeal to the investor and home builder. This is the eighth series of this well known association and shares may be taken by applying at the office or telephoning 145.

SOLDIER TOOK A PLUNGE

Alleged Deserter Jumped From Second Deck of Steamer.

Earl R. Wright, a young white man, alleged to be a deserter from the United States army and captured a few days ago in Greensboro, N. C., while being returned to the post by Officer C. D. O'Brien, of the Gate City police department, on Thursday in the harbor at Southport as the boat was nearing Fort Caswell, to which post he was being returned, made a spectacular plunge from the second deck of the steamer Wilmington in an unsuccessful effort to again secure his liberty. The man, described as a big, upstanding fellow, was rescued by the mate of the German steamer Kiel, interned at Southport until after the war, after he had gone down twice, it is said. His effort to reach the land, which came near costing him his life, having been so rudely interrupted, he was returned to the custody of Officer O'Brien and later delivered to the proper authorities at Fort Caswell, who paid the usual reward of $50 for the return of the alleged deserter.

The Greensboro officer and his prisoner were standing on the second deck of the steamer, it is stated, and as the steamer neared her dock at Southport, Wright made a plunge, tore loose from the grasp of the officer by his coat-tails and plunged into the water below. The steamer Wilmington put back as quickly as possible, but in the meantime the mate on the steamer Kiel had taken in the situation and rescued the man. Officer O'Brien returned to the city Thursday afternoon on the steamer Wilmington and left for his home in Greensboro that night.

Captain Harper describes the man as a "human submarine" and the fellow afforded excitement a plenty for a few minutes Thursday afternoon.

SPECIAL MEETING OF COUNCIL.

Matter of Water Rate for Oakdale Cemetery Decided Upon.

City Council, in special session yesterday morning, accepted the proposition of the Oakdale Cemetery Company with reference to installing water works in the cemetery.

Under the agreement entered into, the cemetery company is to install the necessary mains and laterals, and the city is to furnish the water at a rate of $7.50 a month, consumption not to exceed 150,000 gallons a month at this rate. In the event that it is necessary to use more than 150,000 gallons a month, the city reserves the right to make a rate and exceeding 5 cents per 1,000 gallons.

The work of installing the water system in the cemetery will be started by the company at once.

The meeting yesterday was the last to be held by the present City Council, with the exception of next Wednesday morning, when the body will meet to formally turn over to the new City Council the administration of the city's affairs. Aside from the matter of the water system from the cemetery, nothing else was considered yesterday.

Beach Aldermen Meet.

The board of aldermen of Wrightsville Beach met in special session in the office of Mayor Thos. H. Wright yesterday morning and gave consideration to the plans for the installation of the sewerage system at the beach, which is now nearing completion. Mayor Wright, Aldermen J. A. Taylor, L. Stein and Clerk and Treasurer Robert H. Northrop were present at the meeting, as was also Mr. H. E. Bonitz, supervising engineer. Nothing of an important nature took place at the meeting, beyond reports of satisfactory progress on the work.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES YOUR LIVER! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and You Don't Lose a Day's Work

Liven up your sluggish liver! Feel fine and cheerful; make your work a pleasure; be vigorous and full of ambition. But take no nasty, dangerous calomel because it makes you sick and you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crashes into sour bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

Listen to me! If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working; headache and dizziness gone; stomach will be sweet and bowels regular.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not salivate. Give it to your children. Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of Calomel is almost stopped entirely here.

PERKINS-KELLEY NUPTIALS AT SAVANNAH WEDNESDAY.

Of interest here will be the following from Thursday's Savannah Morning News, as the parents of the bride, who is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kelley, of this city, formerly made their home in Wilmington:

"The marriage of Miss Louise Spotswood Kelley to Dr. Allan Armistead Perkins took place last evening in Christ church. The arrangements for the wedding were simple and very attractive in their plan, making the church ceremony a dignified and lovely one. Behind the altar branches of dogwood were placed and white roses filled the altar vases. With palms in the chancel, the background for the wedding picture was charming.

"While the guests were assembling some delightful selections were played on the organ, and the bridal chorus from 'Lohengrin' was begun as the bride and her attendants entered the church. The ushers, Mr. William A. Winburn, Jr., Mr. Isaac Minis, and the bride's brothers, the Messrs. William and Beverley Kelley, entered first, and were followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. T. Stacy Capers, and the maid of honor, Miss Margaret Brookes. At the foot of the chancel steps the bridegroom with his best man, Mr. Thomas H. Gilliam, Jr., met the bride, who entered with her father, and was given by him in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. F. F. Reese, bishop of Georgia. While it took place. Ovorak's "Humoreque" was softly played and at its conclusion Mendelssohn's wedding march was given as recessional. The bride was an attractive and girlish figure in her wedding gown of tulle and point lace. A skirt of accordion pleated chiffon formed the foundation and over this was hung the double tulle skirt, the upper one scalloped with sprays of orange blossoms caught in the scallops. It was quite short, showing the silver slippers. The little bodice of tulle, with puffed tulle sleeves very short and long tulle sleeves extending to the wrist, was veiled with a bertha of rose point lace, an heirloom in the bride's family. She wore some rare old jewels, also an heirloom, a bracelet, brooch, and carriage of filagree gold set with many tiny seed pearls in clusters. Her long veil of tulle was worn over the face with a spray of orange blossoms at the back, and hung to the edge of the long train, which was also of tulle. She carried a round bouquet of lilies of the valley, enclosed in the old fashioned way by a frill of lace, the quaint character of the bouquet suiting the style of her pretty gown.

"Dr. and Mrs. Perkins left last night for Washington, where they will spend a few days on their way North. The bride's traveling gown was a tailored suit of blue silk poplin, the short jacket worn over a blouse of white Georgette crepe with blue chiffon. Her hat was a tailored sailor, trimmed with violets and roses. Dr. and Mrs. Perkins will make their home in Hockessin, Del. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Kelley and will be greatly missed by her Savannah friends. Dr. Perkins is from Norfolk, but has lived of recent years in Delaware."

INFORMAL RECEPTION FOR MR AND MRS. J. E. WILLSON, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. E. Willson, Sr., entertained at an informal reception at their home, No. 615 Princess street, yesterday afternoon and evening from 5 to 7 o'clock in honor of their son, Mr. James E. Willson, Jr., and his bride, who prior to her marriage was Miss Margaret B. Thompson, of Aspinwall, Pa.

The guests were received by Mrs. James E. Willson, Sr., Mrs. James E. Willson, Jr., Mrs. G. A. P. Bowman, a sister of the bride; Mrs. George Honnett, Mises Lassie Willson, Miss Mae Willson and Miss Helen Pleasants.

Assisting in serving peach and other refreshments were Mrs. James F. Post, Mrs. C. H. Fore, Miss Julia Post, Miss Mary Post, Miss Maud Willson, Miss Margaret Pleasants, Miss Helena Weil, Miss Arra Perry and Miss Mary Louise Stover.

Many friends called during the evening to meet Mr. Willson's charming bride and to extend to him their congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Willson, who were married at the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburg, Pa., April 21st, wil spend several days with the groom's parents here before going to Charlotte, where they will make their home.

At St. Paul's P. E. Church.

The following announcement of services this afternoon will be of interest to the public: "Evening prayer and Holy Baptism this (Saturday) afternoon at 5 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal church, 16th and Market streets. Rev. E. deF. Heald, Jr., priest in charge."

British Heroine Decorated for Bravery Under Fire.

All England is ringing with the name of Miss Muriel Thompson, British nurse with the Belgian soldiers, who has just been decorated by King Albert with the order of Leopold. OFFER PRIZES TO SCHOOLS

New Feature Planned for the Commencement Exercises—Citizens Are Asked to Help.

In order to lend an additional interest to the commencement exercises to be held in the city and county schools in connection with the big educational rally planned for the latter part of this month, Mr. John J. Blair, city superintendent of schools, and Prof. Washington Catlett, county superintendent of education, have inaugurated a movement to offer a few suitable prizes for the best exhibits of different kinds of school work, etc., and they are calling upon the business men and merchants of the city to aid them by contributing to the prize list.

It is hoped to offer prizes as follow:

Best display window boxes (city and county).

Best product map of New Hanover county.

Best product map of North Carolina.

Best first grade writing.

Best fifth grade writing.

School having largest percentage of enrollment present to take part in parade. (County.)

School having best attendance record for the year (county and city).

School having best punctuality record during the year (county and city).

Best display of school work done by the children. (Rural.)

Best display of schol work done by the children. (City.)

Best display of articles made by children. (City.)

Best collection of woods grown in the county. (Rural.)

Best display of nature study material. (City.)

Resources of New Hanover county—mineral and vegetable. (County and city.)

It is not the idea to offer prizes of any exceptional value, but merely something suitable, that will serve as a recognition of merit and coupled with the honor of winning it, will be an incentive to further good work on the part of the winning school, as well as to the other schools of the city and county.

Mr. Blair and Prof. Catlett yesterday addressed the following letter, accompanied by a list of the departments in which it is hoped to offer prizes, to a number of the business men and other citizens of Wilmington:

"To Business Firms and Interested Citizens, Wilmington, N. C.

"Gentlemen: In order to make the joint county and city commencement a more interesting occasion, the teachers desire to offer a few small prizes, either cash or appropriate articles of some value. It will add greatly to the interest if at the close of school the names of successful competitors can be published in the local papers. We shall appreciate greatly any prize which may be offered in either of the departments indicated on the enclosed sheet. Thanking you on behalf of the schools,

Very sincerely,
"JOHN J. BLAIR,

NEGRO GETS NINE MONTHS FOR LARCENY BY TRICK.

Damon Fisher, Sentenced by Recorder —Fears Held for Superior Court.

Damon Fisher, colored, was the star defendant in the Recorder's court yesterday, facing three charges, larceny by trick, assault with a deadly weapon and carrying a concealed weapon. On the first charge he was convicted and sentenced to serve a term of nine months on the county roads. In the case of assault with a deadly weapon judgment was left open and the charge of carrying a concealed weapon was dismissed.

Damon, according to the evidence, kindly volunteered to assist the little son of Mr. Claud Powell, who had been sent out to get a $10 bill changed. Damon relieved the little fellow of the bill and went off to get it changed. He did not return, and it required the efforts of the police to locate him.

Frank Fears, a colored youth, was tried on a charge of storebreaking, it being alleged that he broke into the confectionery store of S. Totoras, a Greek merchant. Probable cause was found and Fears was held for Superior Court. In default of bond in the sum of $250 he went to jail.

Henry Valentine was convicted of the larceny of a watch and several dollars in money from the pockets of a Mr. Hines. Four months on the county roads was the sentence meted out by Recorder Empie.

Arthur Blocker, a colored boy under 16 years of age, was up on a charge of vagrancy. His aged grandmother appeared before the court and said that she could not control the boy, and asked the Recorder to take him in charge. Recorder Empie sentenced him to a term of three months on the county farm.

A case against David Jones, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was dismissed. A nol pros was taken in a case against Nukie Merrick, colored, charged with larceny.

Seven Drum Landed.

A party of Wilmington anglers, including Messrs. Claud Brock, August Khranke and C. L. Ruark, fishing at Mason's Inlet yesterday, landed seven nice drum, or channel bass. The two largest fish weighed 22 1-2 and 21 pounds, while others averaged around six or eight pounds.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Officers A. D. Smith and J. F. Smith, the nimrods of the Wilmington police force, are off for their annual vacation this week. Officers C. E. Wood and J. R. Minshew have just returned from their annual outing.

—Fire which called the department out at 11:53 a. m. yesterday did small damage to house owned by Mr. T. H. Wright and occupied by Lloyd Bowman, colored, at 720 Davis street. A spark from a chimney was the cause.

—The British Steamer Everest with a cargo of 6,509 bales of cotton valued approximately at $409,000, in command of Captain Dower, lifted anchor yesterday afternoon for Liverpool. Both the vessel and the cargo are by Alexander Sprunt & Son.

—Jane Howe, colored widow of the late Valentine Howe, member of one of the best known colored families in Wilmington, died of paralysis at her home, No. 520 South Ninth street, Wednesday morning of this week. The funeral services were held at St. Luke's church at 2:30 Thursday afternoon. She was buried with the honors of three benevolent societies of which she was a member.

HEARING ON RATES.

Corporation Commission Will Likely Come to Wilmington Soon.

The Chamber of Commerce committee on light and power rates of the Tidewater Power Co., appointed at the request of Mr. Hugh MacRae, president of the company, to determine if the rates in effect here are not just and equitable, have not yet heard from the State Corporation Commission as to when a date for a hearing can be arranged here, but it is expected that this will be very soon. The commission has been busy for some time arranging for an important hearing in Washington, D. C., and this is believed to be the reason that a date for the Wilmington hearing has not yet been given.

Would YOU be a FAMOUS BEAUTY also? You can if you wish.

Nimon del Enclos, one of the most beautiful women in the world, a century or more ago, had a most remarkably creamy, soft, delicate complexion, that of an infant, up to the day of her death, and she lived beyond NINETY.

This famous beauty's exquisite complexion was, no doubt, due to a great extent to the Toilet Lotion she was accustomed to use, made out of Rose Water Benzoin and other ingredients good for the complexion.

We have scientifically combined these ingredients under the trade name of "Ninon Toilet Cream" at 25c and 50c per bottle.

A trial will make you use it to the exclusion of all other toilet creams.

SMALL ANVANCE IN COTTON

Early Gains Partly Lost Owing to Less Bullish Week-End Figures, Rains Working Eastward.

New York, April 30.—Cotton lost part of an early advance owing to less bullish week-end figures than expected, and predictions that rains reported southwest would work eastward, breaking the drought in the eastern belt. Closed steady at a net gain of 2 to 5 points. Opened at an advance of 1 tot 2 points on relatively steady cables and sold 7 to 9 points net higher during the morning on Liverpool, New Orleans and local buying.

Reports of renewed rain in the Southwest probably helped inspire this demand while an unfavorable view of new crop conditions also was promoted by the official forecast for clear weather tomorrow in the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama. Private crop reports indicating present prospects for an acreage reduction of from 14 to 16.6 per cent and of 19 to 44 per cent in the use of fertilizers appeared to create no fresh sentiment of consequence and general business was quiet with the market easing off later on realizing and local selling for a reaction.

Cotton closed steady.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Market Has Been Less Active During Week With Prices Showing Tendency to Work Lower.

New York, April 30.—Cotton has been less active the last week, with prices showing a tendency to work lower under realizing and reports of diminishing spot demand. At a decline of about 30 to 35 points from recent high records, however, the market has been steadied by reports of unfavorable weather south, and indications of continued activity at advancing prices in the domestic goods market.

Houses with Wall street connections have been much less active in the market. Some of the larger trade interests have been credited with selling new crop months. Notices so far issued against May contracts have amounted to more than 30,000 bales but scattering near month liquidation has been well absorbed at a discount of about 25 to 30 points under July, and it is reported that all tenders of cotton not yet passed upon by the Department of Agriculture are to be appealed in order to get certificates from the government classers. Heavy rains reported southwest have been accompanied by reports of damage to all crops.

Many traders consider it still too early for any serious apprehension as to ultimate yields, however, and bullish crop advices have failed to create any general aggressive demand, although they have restricted selling and encouraged more or less investment buying on declines. There has been little change in local estimates as to probable exports or domestic mill requirements for the season.

WAR SPECIALTIES HIGHER

Westinghouse Electric Made a Maximum Gain of Ten Points—Others Show Strength.

New York, April 30.—War developments and shares of equipment and industrial companies filling war contracts transcended all other considerations in today's stock market. Announcement of the bombardment of Dunkirk caused an abrupt reversal of upward tendencies in the early session, except in war specialties, which steadily mounted higher, though closing with moderate recessions from best quotations.

Westingnouse Electric made a maximum gain of 10 points and a net gain of 8, closing at 106 as against last week's final price of 87.

General Electric, American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, Pressed Car Steel, American Can and some of the motor concessions rose 3 to 8 points which the shares of gas and other utility companies rose in porportion.

Potential leaders including the dividend paying railroads, the coppers and United States Steel were relatively dull and backward, with heavy selling in the final hour. Minor railway issues were stronger.

Bonds irregular with gains in speculative issues. Total sales, par value, aggregated $5,600,000. United States coupon 2s and 3s and Panama 3s rose ¼c on call.

DUN'S BUSINESS REVIEW.

Each Week Strengthens Confidence in Revival of Business.

New York, April 30.—R. G. Dun & Company's Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

"Each week strengthens condence in a progressive revival of business activity, but the forward movement is in many departments of trade so slow and there are so many cross influences at work that some disappointment is felt that the advance is, on the whole, not more pronounced.

"The recent favorable conditions in textile markets are maintained, cotton goods being in excellent demand and the movement of underwear and hosiery expanding.

"Crop reports continue favorable.

"Financial conditions remain very auspicious with money easy. There is a considerable reduction in the number of unemployed. The export movement continues heavy. Cotton exports in March were the largest in 15 years.

"Bank clearings for the week amounted to $2,910,166,685, an increase of 1.1 per cent as compared with the same week last year.

"Business failures totalled 447 as against 308 for the corresponding week last year."

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Early Advance Not Well Maintained —Profit Taking Rather Heavy.

New Orleans, April 30.—The price of cotton was advanced in the early trading today but the gain was not well maintained. Profit-taking later became rather heavy. At the best trading months were 11 to 12 points over yesterday's last quotations. From this there was a gradual sag until prices showed an advance of only 2 to 3 points. The close was at an advance of 3 to 5 points.

The rise of the mornin gwas based partly on private bureau reports on acreage and partly on more rain in Texas.

Cotton closed steady at an advance of 3 to 5 points, closing: May 9.76; July 10.11; October 10.36; December 10.52; January 10.60.

Spot steady, sales 1,225, to arrive none, middling 9.43.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Chicago, April 30.—Hogs, strong, mostly 5c higher; bulk 7.60 to 7.70; light 7.45 tot 7.85; mixed 7.35 tot 7.80; heavy 7.15 tot 7.75; rough 7.15 to 7.30; pigs 5.25 to 5.10.

Cattle—Steady; native beef steers 6.15 to 8.75; Western steers 5.60 to 7.40; cows and heifers 3.10 to 8.50; calves 6.00 to 8.75.

Sheep—Steady; sheep 7.40 to 8.40;; lambs 8.10 to 10.75.

WOMENS' CONGRESS NOT ALL PEACEFUL

Ladies from Europe Insist on Talking War and Justice.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

One Delegate From Belgium Surprises Audience by Her Remarks—British Suffragist Ruled Out of Order to Check Speech.

The Hague, Netherlands, April 30, via London.—The wings of the dove of peace were ruffled today at the session of the International Congress of Women. At the instance of Dr. Augspurg, of Munich, the entire Belgian delegation was invited to the platform. They were welcomed by the chairman, Miss Jane Addams, of Chicago, with both hands, but there was no handshaking with the German delegates.

In moving the final resolution, Mrs. Rosika Schwimmer, president of the Hungarian Woman's Suffrage Association, requested that all delegates stand one minute in silent prayer for peace. Mlle. Hamer, of the Belgian delegation, asked permission to utter a few words.

When this was granted she astounded her audience with this dramatic exclamation:

"I am a Belgian before everything and I cannot think as you do. There can be no peace without justice. The war must continue until the Belgians' wrongs have been righted. There must be no mediation except at the bar of justice." General sympathy for the Belgians caused part of the audience to break into cheers.

Justice Added to Resolution.

On the motion of Miss Holbrook, of Chicago, the word "justice" was inserted in the resolution which reads:

"The International Congress of Women, of different nations, creeds, classes and parties, is united in expressing sympathy with the suffering of all, whatever their nationality, who are fighting for their country or who are laboring under the burden of war. Since the mass of the people of each of the countries now warring believe themselves to be fighting not aggressively but in self-defense and for their national existence, it urges the governments of the world to put an end to this bloodshed and to begin peace negotiations, and it emphatically demands that the peace which follows shall be permanent, and, therefore, based upon justice and principles which include those adopted by this congress."

Some time before, the congress had been upset by Mrs. Amy Lillingston, of London, who declared:

"I was a suffragist and I remain a suffragist. I suffered in jail for it. I am just a plain English working woman, but I represent millions of women who favor the present just war as much as do the men. One hundred and eighty women are said to be waiting at Tilbury to come to this congress to talk peace. For every one of those women a thousand women are willing to accompany their sons and husbands to fight. We are tired of the century old silly platitudes such as are uttered here."

Mrs. Lillingston insisted on continuing her speech until she was ruled out of order.

Elizabeth Glendower Evans, of Boston, and Mrs. Morgan Branch, of San Francisco, moved and seconded an amendment to the resolution referring to the armament. The delegates urged that all neutral nations place an embargo on arms and ammunition.

Miss Addams said:

"I am glad to agree with Miss Evans' indictment, as much of this happened in America," but she ruled that the amendment was out of order.

HEWLETT AND MORRIS RELEASED.

Furnished Bond for Their Appearance Before Recorder Today.

Clarence Hewlett and Ben Morriss, the two young white men arrested Thursday night on charges of being implicated in the robbery at the C. W. Polvogt department store some days ago, were yesterday released for their appearance before the Recorder this morning. They furnished bond in the sum of $150 each.

Hewlett and Morriss both deny any knowledge of the robbery. Their arrests were upon warrants sworn out by C. H. Jones, a private detective of this city, who has been working on the case.

Ed Smith, white, who was brought back to the city Thursday night by detective Jones, on suspicion of having been implicated in the robbery, was arrested last night on a warrant issued by Justice Harriss, and is being held pending further inquiry into the matter.

among the results satisfactory to the men.

Judge Pritchard's Statement.

Judge Pritchard's statement follows, in part:

"I deem it proper to say that in my opinion the freight rates, as well as the yard rates for firemen and engineers agreed upon are not as high as they should be. Nevertheless, the rules as respects weight on drivers, time constituting a day's work, initial and terminal delay, and overtime, passenger rates and rules and other rules accord to the men substantial benefits which should not be denied them."

The dissenting opinion of Burgess and Shea contained much argument and evidence used in the hearing and to which, they contended, the arbiters paid too little attention or ignored. They held that arbitration had failed to qualify as a solution of wage disputes.

at times since, while on the bench, as quoted above.

Then the committee reviews each of the court incidents, particularly in Sampson, Wayne, Harnett, Craven and New Hanover counties.

Reciting Judge Carter's treatment of H. A. Grady, Esq., in Sampson court, the committee finds that Mr. Grady "was respectful and orderly and did nothing to provoke the judge to the harsh treatment aforesaid."

Reciting the incident in the trial of the Baggett case and Judge Carter's reflection on Justice of the Peace Eldridge Lee, as having disgraced his office by his part in the taking of the affidavit from the girl retracting her first affidavit against Baggett, the committee finds no evidence that Mr. Lee knowingly or wilfully did any wrong in the premises and that Judge Carter's treatment of Mr. Lee "was abrupt and deserving of criticism."

As to New Hanover Case.

Taking up the New Hanover case, in which John D. Bellamy, Esq., was forced by Judge Carter to forego the right of appeal for his client in State vs. Starkey, the committee reviews the case at length and "is of opinion and so finds from the evidence that Judge Carter's conduct toward Mr. Bellamy was harsh and arbitrary and had the effect of causing him to forego his right of appeal."

(It is noted in this connection that Representative Stacy, of Wilmington, member of the committee, took no part in the findings as to this case for the reason that he was of counsel for the private prosecution in the Starkey case).

The Wake county court incidents are recited at length, the committee holding that the demeanor of Judge Carter toward J. C. L. Harris and W. C. Douglass "was harsh, arbitrary and discourteous and plainly demonstrated a recurrence of his nervous disorder."

The committee finds that Judge Carter's treatment of Sheriff Sears and County Attorney Beckwith in connection with "The Girl From Rectors" case was "abnormal, unfair and grossly discourteous to these gentlemen."

The committee finds that Judge Carter was not warranted in his public reprimand of Solicitor Norris at the Harnett court in the incident growing out of State vs. Upchurch, the conduct of the solicitor being declared to be usual when assisted by local counsel.

Reciting the Wayne county incident in which M. W. Allen addressed a paper to "Judge Frack C. Carter" much to the irritation of the judge, the committee finds that Judge Carter's "manner and words" were "inconsistent with the dignity of a superior court judge" and adds that Judge Carter, as a witness, confessed he was heartily ashamed of his conduct on this occasion. In concluding this phase of the report, the committee says "that on a number of other occasions the judge displayed anger and impatience toward attorneys, jurors and officers of the court, but as to the cases not hereinbefore separately considered the committee is of the opinion and so finds that while the judge was in some instances impatient, irritable and harsh, his conduct was not so oppressive as to be in substantial contravention of the rights of the parties in the premises."

The Abernathy Contempt Case.

The report next sets out the "alleged harsh, oppressive, unwarranted and unjustifiable action of Judge Carter in relation to the contempt proceedings against Solicitor Abernathy at Newbern."

The facts in the case and the court records as to the contempt case are recited at great length, the committee finding that Solicitor Abernathy acted prudently in agreeing to the continuance of the Baugham case as he did; that the remarks of Judge Carter constituted a reflection upon the solicitor's official action and conduct and should not have been made, but that after having been publicly made in open court, opportunity should have been given the solicitor then and there to immediately answer the criticisms and explain the reasons for his assenting to the continuance and he should have been adjudged in contempt for attempting in a respectful manner to explain his action in the premises. The committee finds that his behavior was at no time insolent, and if his failure to sit down constituted contempt, which the committee finds that it did, it was superinduced by the action of the judge and was not such as to support in full the judge's findings of fact.

"In this contempt proceeding," the report continues, "Judge Carter acted harshly and arbitrarily. There was no evidence offered in the investigation showing any improper conduct on the part of Solicitor Abernethy except his persistent refusal to be seated when told to do so. This direction of the court he should have obeyed out of due respect to the majesty of the law and the dignity of the courts of the country."

Commenting on the statement read in the Craven court on Wednesday by Judge Carter, the committee pronounces this "statement" as "most inopportune and exhibits a state of mind and attitude on the part of the judge which cannot be commended,' 'and finds that the judgment of contempt and the continuance of the case on Monday should have closed the matter so far as the judge presiding at the February term was concerned.

Abernethy's Terse Refusal.

The committee terms the solicitor's reply on Thursday "a terse refusal to comply with the court's request."

"We cannot commend the solicitor for declining to obey the court's request. However, it should be said in justice to him, that sufficient cause had been offered to tax his patience sorely and it appears from the evidence that at the time set for the solicitor to make his reply the court was then in possession of the causes which moved the solicitor in consenting to continue the Baugham case. When the facts and circumstances which had transpired during this term of court are taken into consideration, the situation is given a setting which leads the committee to refrain from criticising the solicitor's reply."

That Saturday at Newbern.

At this point, the committee declares, Judge Carter missed a second opportunity during the term to have closed without further trouble the incident as State vs. Baugham, "but the court was not disposed to consider the matter closed, and this brings us to the events of the last day of the term," adds the committee, as a prelude to recitation of "Saturday's proceedings of the court." Then the circumstances of the entry of the "memorandum" on the records by Judge Carter are recited in which the judge declared the solicitor's conduct "a moral, if not a legal dereliction which the court heartily condemns." Concluding this final phase of the report, the committee says:

"In the opinion of the committee, the manner in which this memorandum was spread upon the minutes and the conclusions drawn by the judge in regard to the solicitor's conduct were unfair and unjustified. If it were within our power, we would expunge or modify these records, to the end that the injury done thereby might, in a measure, be repaired, or at least, that the influence of the same might be removed."

Then follow the general conclusions and recommendations quoted above.

The report is signed by each member of the committee—P. A. Doughton, chairman; H. P. Grier, R. S. Hutchison, J. C. M. Vann, W. P. Stacy, L. H. Allred and A. R. Dunning.
